In Scripture Today

John 17:1-11

What has been called the High Priestly Prayer of John 17 is divided between the three years of the lectionary on the Sunday after the Ascension. The church honors the glory of Christ's crucifixion along with that of his exaltation, which is referred to in the other readings. Proclaiming John 17 after, rather than before, Holy Week and Easter exemplifies the technique of the lectionary in layering biblical meanings in the worship life of the church.

Acts 1:6-14

The ascension moves to the establishment of the church in Jerusalem. So our contemplation of Christ's ascension leads us to the faithful devotion of the praying community.

1 Peter 4:12-14; 5:6-11

This Sunday is the last in the semi-continuous reading of 1 Peter. At least in hearing about the sufferings of the church we hold before us all persecuted Christians around the world. The community of the baptized takes comfort in the mighty God who cares for us.
