In Scripture Today

Matthew 10:40-42

The church is called to trust that, appearances to the contrary notwithstanding, God will reward those who live as faithful Christians. Matthew's belief that Christian preachers speak the words of Christ and bear the power of God has continued to figure in controversies over church leadership.

Jeremiah 28:5-9

Matthew wrote about true and false teachers against the backdrop of his knowledge of Jewish religious history, which he saw as continued in the ministry of Jesus. Like Jeremiah, Jesus and the evangelist warn against false words that sound religiously pleasing. Just as Jeremiah suffered, so did Jesus, and so will contemporary believers.

Romans 6:12-23

The church receives the message from Paul as a true word from God: lives of sin lead only to one's own death, but eternal life comes through incorporation into the death of Christ Jesus. Freedom is other than the popular idea that I can do anything I want to do; rather, the freedom of baptism is slavery to the righteousness of Christ.
