Ministry of Care and Visitation

Would you like to participate in a ministry of care and visitation? Please consider joining our new Pastoral Care Team. We will meet on the first Monday of each month at 11am in the gray room, beginning Aug.3. The monthly meetings, led by Pastor James, will be a time for prayer, support, and coordination for all caregivers. Please reach out to Pastor James with questions or to express interest in this shared ministry.

In Scripture Today

Matthew 13:31-33, 44-52

It is too easy to rush through these parables without encountering the surprises: the mustard bush is not, in fact, a great tree; the woman is baking leavened, thus nonreligious, bread; the treasure calls for total commitment; the net includes both eatable fish and trash. Many but not all Christians have literalized Matthew's apocalyptic imagery about punishment following the final judgment.

1 Kings 3:5-12

Tradition has idealized the wisdom of Solomon. Christians recognize Jesus Christ as the divine wisdom who embodies both blessing and judgment and who speaks to the church in surprising parables.

Romans 8:26-39

As we ready ourselves to hear Matthew's warning about a final judgment, we rejoice to share Paul's confidence in the overarching love of God is for us. Christ is interceding for us, transforming all things with the paradoxical wisdom of the cross. It is Christ who was slaughtered for us.
