In Scripture Today

Matthew 11:16-19, 25-30

This beloved passage, "Come to me, and I will give you rest," contrasts with the earlier sentence, that Christians are indeed wearing the yoke of Christ. Some Christians have found such biblical passages about the Father's enigmatic will as fundamental to their faith.

Zechariah 9:9-12

Year A has already heard from this passage in the processional gospel for Passion/Palm Sunday, since Matthew cites this prophecy of a king arriving in Jerusalem on a donkey as fulfilled in Jesus. On this Sunday, the passage says that only the true king will bring peace. Thus the passage is linked with Jesus' promise of rest.

Romans 7:15-25a

Usually in Paul the Greek word translated as "you" is plural, but in this section, Paul admits to the personal daily struggle of the baptized life. Aware of this "war" within our very selves, we gladly come to the gospel's word of rest in Christ.
