Next Week's Word

Jeremiah 23:23-29

Psalms 82

Hebrews 11:29—12:2

Luke 12:49-56

In Scripture Today

Luke 12:32-40

We are given four different images of the life of faithfulness: we are a flock that is well shepherded; we put our money into sturdy purses; we are slaves served at table by the master; our lives are broken into by God's very self. At holy communion today, we are those very slaves served by the master.

Genesis 15:1-6

This account of the establishment of the covenant between God and Abraham is set next to Luke 12 as two more images of God's promise of grace to the faithful. God's coming is like a couple in their 90s finally bearing a child and like the multitudinous stars shining in the night.

Hebrews 11:1-3, 8-16

Hebrews 11 is the first of four semi-continuous selections here in Year C: Year B also includes four semi-continuous passages from Hebrews. The reading enhances our hearing of Genesis 15 with the author's extended example of Abraham's faith. Both Hebrews 11:12 and Genesis 15:5 invoke the image of the stars.
