In Scripture Today

Luke 15:1-10

We grumble at God's welcome to the outsider, we are the flock who miss the one who is lost, we are the lost sheep, we are the woman searching for each other, we are the coin for which God searches, we are the rejoicing community. All are true.

Exodus 32:7-14

The conclusion of the story of the golden calf fits well with Luke's parables of the lost. Here, the lost ones are the entire assembly who want a more believable, available god. Yet God is reminded of the promise of mercy made to our forebears and so forgives us all.

1 Timothy 1:12-17

Today begins three weeks of proclamations from 1 Timothy, and the selection is most appropriate for this day. Here, it is Paul himself who was lost, acting ignorantly in unbelief, until God's mercy brought him into the community of believers. The theme of divine patience (v. 16) recalls Moses's reminder to God of divine forbearance (Exod. 32:12).
