Use of mobile devices

When you use our website on your mobile phone or other mobile device, we may obtain information such as your device ID and your location. However, you can deactivate the location service directly on your device.

Cookies and other similar technologies

We use certain cookies and similar technologies on our site to make your navigation easier. However, these cookies are not used to collect personal information about you. You can disable these in your browser settings, but this may affect some functionality of the site.

Tools

Some data is collected automatically when you use our site, such as your IP address, operating system and browser, the pages you visited and queries you made, and the time and date of your connection to the site. This information does not identify you and is therefore not considered confidential.

We use analytics tools on this site to measure, collect and store information that allows us to analyze traffic and improve our services. Your satisfaction is our priority, which is why we are constantly striving to improve. You can choose to disable analytics tool cookies, but you may experience access limitations to certain secure pages.

Use of information

The information collected by analytics tools is used to generate statistics and reports on our site to better understand our customer base. These statistics and reports are used to improve the management and services we offer to our customers.

We would like to point out that under no circumstances do we sell, rent, share or disclose your personal information to third parties for the purpose of commercializing your data.

Publication and third parties

We may share non-personalized and non-confidential information about our business, such as usage trends for our services, with third parties. We ensure that the client's consent is obtained before any transmission of confidential information.

Security

We do everything we can to guarantee the safety of our users. The personal information we collect is encrypted using SSL (Secure Sockets Layer) technology, and access to this data is strictly reserved to those responsible for data processing. They are subject to strict confidentiality obligations.

The data stored in our servers is only communicated within the framework of a legal obligation, to enforce our conditions of use, to protect our rights, our property, and our security, as well as those of our users, to fight against fraud, or with your consent. They are protected by confidentiality and security measures.

Transition

In the event of a sale, purchase, partnership, reorganization, merger, bankruptcy, or other possible transition of our business, we are committed to protecting the information collected during the transfer of this data.

Links to other sites

Our site may contain links to other sites. Please note that these sites are not governed by our privacy policy. We recommend that you review the privacy policies of other sites to understand their procedures regarding your confidential information. We assume no responsibility for the handling of confidential data on third party sites to which we provide links for your convenience.

Do not hesitate to contact us at 120033 CANADA INC RAYMOND CHAUFFAGE CLIMATISATION to obtain more information on the processing of your personal data or to make changes to the information we already hold. We will be happy to provide you with additional information.
