

St. Anthony School Alumni James Tavares, in Honor of his Dad

WILLIAM D. TAVARES SCHOLARSHIP

William D. “Bill” Tavares was a longtime educator, community leader and advocate for local families being priced out of their homes by escalating valuations and property taxes. He was a former Principal of Makawao School and the founder of the Committee for More Equitable Taxation or COMET. He remained active in our community through Advisory Boards, Boy Scouts, Maui Children’s Home and Citizens for Good Government. His greatest love was his wife, children, mo’opuna... and his Love of God, Church, School and Country.

William’s son -St. Anthony School (SAS) Alumni JAMES TAVARES (Class of 1974) continues his dad’s legacy being committed to community, church and St. Anthony School. He was raised with the foundation of faith and the importance of education. James is passionate about bringing honor to God, Church and School, Family and Community is paramount to a successful life.
