THE LOCATION

VENUE 1315

Are you looking for a location with something special? Then this is the optimal place for you!
VENUE1315 offers an attractive space for your event right in the pedestrian zone.
In the building of the former Augustinian church from 1315, with its high white walls and stained glass windows, your company party will become a fascinating and exclusive event.

HISTORY

The church of the Augustinian monastery in Munich dates back to 1315. By the way, the very first beer of the Augustiner Brewery was brewed here in 1328. Not only for that reason is the Augustiner Church one of the most noble buildings in Munich. After three fires between 1411 and 1434, it was renovated or rebuilt each time. Enormous damage after the bombing raids motivated a joint effort, the church with its high white walls and stained glass windows was resurrected four years after the end of World War II according to plans by Erwin Schleich. Today, it forms the fitting backdrop for the German Hunting and Fishing Museum. And for your event, it is the perfect location as Venue1315.
after that you have been searching for a long time.
