

WE ARE THE BUILDINX START-UP AREA – we are missing you!

Can we build on you? Maybe even with you? Then the BUILDINX start-up area is the right place for you. We are the first trade fair to bring together all partners along the logistics and industrial property value chain so that you can help shape the future of the industry at first hand. On the agenda: expert key notes, innovations in technology, digital transformation and sustainability. This is the opportunity to expand your network and make valuable contacts.

Is your company less than five years old and/or does it have fewer than ten employees? Then secure your place in the BUILDINX Start-Up Area. Let's grow together!
