1. Application and Event Scope

This Addendum applies to P2G Entertainment services, including DJ/emcee services, interactive experiences, games, event sound, and related event support. The accepted Service Order establishes the event date, location, services, equipment, performance hours, and pricing.

2. Reservations, Payments, and Cancellation

All events require a nonrefundable reservation deposit to secure the event date. The deposit amount and payment schedule are established in the accepted Service Order. The date is not reserved until the required deposit is received and the Service Order is accepted.

Cancellation, postponement, and rescheduling terms, including any additional charges or nonrefundable third-party expenses, are governed by the accepted Service Order and applicable law. P2G is not obligated to accommodate date changes when unavailable.

3. Client and Venue Responsibilities

Client is responsible for required venue permissions, permits, safe access, adequate space, stable electrical power, and appropriate protection from weather. Client is responsible for guest conduct, participant supervision, and damage to P2G equipment caused by Client, guests, or venue personnel to the extent permitted by law.

Client and venue are responsible for applicable public-performance permissions and licenses assigned to them by law or venue agreement. P2G may suspend or discontinue services when conditions are unsafe, unlawful, or materially interfere with performance.

4. Scheduling, Changes, and Disruptions

Setup and performance schedules are established in the Service Order. Overtime, additional equipment, staffing, relocation, or material schedule changes are subject to P2G's availability and may incur additional charges.

Outdoor events require a suitable weather-protected alternative. If weather, venue conditions, or circumstances beyond P2G's reasonable control prevent safe performance, P2G may suspend services or work with Client to reschedule. Financial consequences are governed by the accepted Service Order, MSA, and applicable law.

5. Performance and Service Limitations

P2G will provide services with commercially reasonable care but does not guarantee attendance, audience participation, or specific entertainment outcomes. P2G may decline unlawful, unsafe, discriminatory, or technically impracticable requests. Services or equipment not expressly included in the accepted Service Order are outside the contracted scope.
