

Craig T. Dokken

Shareholder, President and CEO

763.560.5700 | hennsnoxlaw.com

Primary Areas of Practice

- Construction Litigation
- Commercial Litigation
- Commercial Real Estate Litigation
- Residential Real Estate Litigation
- Mediation

Education

- Hamline University School of Law, St. Paul, Minnesota, 1987
J.D.
- Hamline University, St. Paul, Minnesota, 1984
B.A., Major: Business Administration

Bar Admissions

- Minnesota, 1987
- U.S. District Court District of Minnesota, 1988
- U.S. Tax Court, 1992

Craig is CEO of Henningson & Snoxell, Ltd., located in Maple Grove, Minnesota. His practice is concentrated in the areas of Construction and Real Estate Litigation. He also serves as a Mediator and has been an adjunct professor at Hamline University since 2003 teaching Business Law. Minnesota Law & Politics magazine has repeatedly named Craig a Super Lawyer®, a designation reserved for only 5 percent of the total lawyers in the state. He has also received an AV Preeminent Peer Review Rating® in the distinguished legal directory, Martindale-Hubbell®.*

Construction Law. In his construction practice, Craig represents parties involved in construction projects and related disputes. His clients range in size from small family-owned businesses to large publicly held companies, including general contractors, subcontractors, owners and developers, as well as lenders. He provides a wide range of services to his clients including:

- Litigation and dispute resolution
- Mechanic's lien representation and foreclosures
- Collections
- Design defect and breach of contract issues
- Water infiltration
- Performance issues

Banking. In the banking arena, Craig assists lenders in a wide range of banking and lending matters, such as:

- Foreclosure proceedings
- Loan workouts and forbearance agreements
- Secured creditor remedies
- Collection related issues
- Fraud and forgery matters

(continued on back)

Craig has been selected as a “2013 Top Rated Lawyer in Commercial Litigation” by Martindale-Hubbell* and American Lawyer Media (ALM). He has also received an AV® Peer Review Rating in the distinguished legal directory, Martindale-Hubbell®, and has repeatedly been selected for inclusion in Minnesota Super Lawyers® Editions.

He was appointed by the Minnesota Supreme Court to serve a three year term as a member of the Minnesota Board of Continuing Legal Education. He is active in local and state bar association activities and recently served on the General Assembly and Appointments Committee of the Minnesota State Bar Association, and the Board of Governors for the Hennepin County Bar Association. Craig is a past chair of the Membership Committee, the Governance Committee, and Civil Litigation Section of the Hennepin County Bar Association.

Craig is also involved in many activities outside of the office where he served as the Board of Chairmen for Experience Maple Grove, a destination marketing organization serving the City of Maple Grove. He is also a member of the Board of Directors for the I-94 Chamber of Commerce. Craig also served as the President of an 8,500 member congregation and also served on the church’s foundation board.

Craig is an Adjunct Professor of Business Law at Hamline University in St. Paul, Minnesota, as well as a frequent speaker at continuing education seminars for lawyers.

Born in Duluth, Minnesota, Craig received his law degree from the Hamline University School of Law and his undergraduate degree from Hamline University. Following graduation, Craig served as a law clerk for the Honorable Chester Durda of the Hennepin County District Court. Craig merged his practice with Henningson & Snoxell in June, 2002.

AV® Preeminent™ is a certification mark of Reed Elsevier Properties Inc., used in accordance with the Martindale-Hubbell certification procedures, standards and policies.*

