(adopted 7 December 2008)

SECTION 1. PLACE OF MEETINGS

SECTION 2. ANNUAL MEETINGS

The members shall meet annually during the month of August for the purpose of electing Directors and transacting any other necessary business. Each member shall vote by written ballot, casting one vote for each vacant board position. Should a tie vote occur, the acting Board of Directors shall devise a subsequent run-off election until a Director is chosen. In the case that a tie cannot be broken, the Board of Directors shall devise an equitable means of resolving the issue.

The Board of Directors will appoint Officers. The number and duties of Directors are detailed in Article V.

Terms of office for all Directors is detailed in Article V. The annual meeting of members for the purpose of electing Directors shall be deemed a regular meeting and any reference in these Bylaws to "regular meetings of members" refers to this annual meeting.

SECTION 3. SPECIAL MEETINGS OF ALL MEMBERS

Special Meetings of members may be called by the Board of Directors or the President of the corporation, for specific and notified purposes. In addition, such meetings of the members for any lawful purposes may be called by any group comprised of five percent (5%) or more of the members.

SECTION 4. NOTICE OF MEETINGS

Time of Notice. Whenever members are required or permitted to take action at an annual or special meeting of members, a written notice of the meeting shall be given by the Secretary of the corporation not less than ten (10) nor more than ninety (90) days before the date of the meeting to each member who, on the record date for the notice of the meeting, is entitled to vote thereat; provided, however, that if notice is given by mail, and the notice is not mailed by first-class, registered, or certified mail, that notice shall be given no less than twenty (20) days before the meeting.

Manner of Giving Notice. Notice of a members' meeting or any report shall be given either personally, by mail, email or other means of written communication, addressed to the member at the address of such member appearing on the records of the corporation or given by the member to the corporation for the purpose of notice; or if no address appears or is given, at the place where the principal office of the corporation is located or by publication of notice of the meeting at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the jurisdiction in which the principal office is located. Notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time when delivered personally or deposited in the mail or sent by telegram or other means of written communication.

Contents of Notice. Notice of a membership meeting shall state the place, date and time of the meeting and (1), in the case of a special meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted, and no other business may be transacted; or (2), in the case of a regular meeting, those matters which the Board, at the time notice is given, intends to present for action by the members. Subject to any provision to the contrary contained in these Bylaws, however, any proper matter may be presented at a regular meeting for such action. The notice of any meeting of members at which Directors are to be elected shall include the names of all those who are nominees at the time notice is given to members.

Notice of Meetings Called by Members. If a special meeting is called by members as authorized by these Bylaws, the request for the meeting shall be submitted in writing, specifying the general nature of the business proposed to be transacted and shall be delivered personally or sent by registered mail or by telegraph to the President or Secretary of the corporation. The officer receiving the request shall promptly cause notice to be given to the members entitled to vote that a meeting will be held, stating the date of the meeting. The date for such meeting shall be fixed by the Board and shall not be less than thirty-five (35) nor more than ninety (90) days after the receipt of the request for the meeting by the officer. If the notice is not given within twenty (20) days after the receipt of the request, persons calling the meeting may give the notice themselves.

Waiver of Notice of Meetings. The transactions of any meeting of members, however called and noticed, and wherever held, shall be as valid as though taken at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if a quorum is present either in person or by proxy, and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the persons entitled to vote, not present in person or by proxy, signs a written waiver of notice or a consent to the holding of the meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. Waiver of notices or consents need not specify either the business to be transacted or the purpose of any regular or special meeting of members, except that if action is taken or proposed to be taken for approval of any of the matters specified in paragraph F of this section, the waiver of notice or consent shall state the general nature of the proposal.

Special Notice Rules for Approving Certain Proposals. If action is proposed to be taken or is taken with respect to the following proposals, such action shall be invalid unless unanimously approved by those entitled to vote:

- Removal of Directors without cause;
- Filling of vacancies on the Board by members;
- Amending the Articles of Incorporation;
- An election to voluntarily wind up and dissolve the corporation.

SECTION 5. QUORUM REQUIREMENTS

A quorum shall consist of thirty percent of the voting members of the corporation.

The members present at a duly called and held meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to do business notwithstanding the loss of a quorum at the meeting for any reason, provided that any action taken after the loss of a quorum must later be approved by at least a majority of the members required to constitute a quorum.

In the absence of a quorum, any meeting of the members may be adjourned by the vote of a majority of the members represented in person or by proxy at the meeting, but no other business shall be transacted at such meeting.

When a meeting is adjourned for lack of a sufficient number of members in attendance to conduct business, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting or of the business intended to be transacted there, other than by recording, at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, the time and place wherein adjournment occurred. However, if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for notice or voting by the members, the notification process must be repeated, stating the new time, date and place.

SECTION 6. MAJORITY ACTION AS MEMBERSHIP ACTION

Every action taken, or decision made by a majority of voting members present in person or represented by proxy at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present is the act of the members, unless the law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws require a greater number.

SECTION 7. VOTING RIGHTS

Each person who is determined to be a member in good standing under Article III of these Bylaws is entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to vote by the members. Any person not determined to be a member by these same criteria at the time of voting, shall not vote. The Treasurer, at the time of voting, shall have available a current list of members eligible to vote.

Voting at duly held meetings may be voice vote or written ballot. Election of Directors and the election of officers, however, shall be by ballot.

SECTION 8. PROXY VOTING

Members shall have the right to vote either in person or by written proxy executed by the members duly authorized agent and filed with the Secretary of the corporation. No proxy shall be valid after the close of the fiscal year in which it was executed. No proxy shall be irrevocable. Any proxy may be revoked, following procedures given in Title 29 of the District of Columbia Code.

Proxies may originate with the individual member who wishes to utilize this manner of voting, or with the Board of Directors. In the former case, they may be one of two types: (1) vote-specific, authorizing the member's agent to vote only for particular candidates or issues appearing on the ballot and (2) general "Powers-of-Attorney", authorizing the member's agent to vote as he or she sees fit on such issues. In the case of proxies originated by the Board, they must state the general nature of the matter to be voted on, and list those persons who were nominees for office at the time notice of the vote for election was given to members.

Any proxy which a member marks "withhold" shall not be voted either for or against the election of that given nominee for office, or given proposition.

Proxies originated by the individual member shall:

- Be written or typed, not orally transmitted.
- State clearly the member's wishes in regards to the vote, whether for offices, individuals, or other matters under consideration.
- Be signed and dated.

Proxies shall afford an opportunity for the member to specify a choice between approval and disapproval of each matter or group of related matters intended, at the time the proxy is distributed, to be acted upon at the meeting for which the proxy is solicited. The proxy shall also provide that when the person solicited specifies a choice with respect to any such matter, the vote shall cast in accordance therewith.

SECTION 9. CONDUCT OF MEETINGS

Meetings of members shall be presided over by the President of the corporation or, in his or her absence, by a Chair chosen by a majority of the Board of Directors. The Secretary of the corporation shall act as Secretary of all meetings of members. In the Secretary's absence, the presiding officer shall appoint another person to act as Secretary of the meeting. Meetings shall be governed by the most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order, as such rules may be revised from time to time, insofar as such rules are not inconsistent with or in conflict with these Bylaws, with the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation, or with any provision of law.

SECTION 10. ACTION BY WRITTEN BALLOT WITHOUT A MEETING

Any action which may be taken at any regular or special meeting of members may be taken without a meeting if the corporation distributes a written ballot to every member entitled to vote on the matter. The ballot shall set forth the proposed action, provide an opportunity to specify approval or disapproval of each proposal, provide that where the person solicited specifies a choice with respect to any such proposal the vote shall be cast in accordance therewith, and provide a reasonable time within which to return the ballot to the corporation. Ballots shall be mailed or delivered in the manner required for giving notice of meetings specified in Section 4(B) of this Article.

All written ballots shall also indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirement and, except for ballots soliciting votes for the election of Directors, shall state the percentage of approvals necessary to pass the measure submitted. The ballots must specify the time by which they must be received by the corporation in order to be counted.

Approval of action by written ballot shall be valid only when the number of votes cast by ballot within the time period specified equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action, and the number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required to approve the action at a meeting at which the total number of votes cast was the same as the number of votes cast by ballot.

Directors shall be elected by written ballot. Such ballots shall list the persons nominated at the time that the ballots are mailed or delivered. If any ballots are returned marked "withhold" or otherwise marked in a manner indicating that the authority to vote for the election of Directors is declined, they shall not be counted as votes either for or against the election of a Director.

A written ballot may not be revoked after its receipt by the corporation or its deposit in the mail, whichever occurs first.

SECTION 11. REASONABLE NOMINATION AND ELECTION PROCEDURES

This corporation shall make available to members reasonable nomination and election procedures with respect to the election of Directors by members. Such procedures shall be reasonable given the nature, size, and operation of the corporation, and shall include:

- A reasonable means of nominating person for election as Directors.
- A reasonable opportunity for any nominee to communicate to the members the nominee's qualifications and the reasons for the nominee's candidacy.
- A reasonable opportunity for all nominees to solicit votes.
- A reasonable opportunity for all members to choose among the nominees.

Upon the written request by any nominee for election to the Board and the payment with such request of the reasonable costs of mailing (including postage) the corporation shall, within ten (10) business days after such request (provided payment has been made) mail to all members or such portion of them that the nominee may reasonable specify, any material which the nominee shall furnish and which is reasonably related to the election, unless the corporation within five (5) business days after the request allows the nominee, at the corporation's option, the right to do either of the following:

- Inspect and copy the record of all members' names, addresses and voting rights, at reasonable times, upon five (5) business days' prior written demand upon the corporation, which demand shall state the purpose for which the inspection rights are requested; or
- Obtain from the Secretary, upon written demand and payment of a reasonable charge, a list of the names, addresses, and voting rights of those member entitled to vote for the election of Directors, as of the most recent record date for which it has been compiled or as of any date specified by the nominee subsequent to the date of demand. The demand shall state the purpose for which the list is requested and the membership list shall be made available on or before the later of ten (10) business days after the demand is received or after the date specified therein as the date as of which the list is to be compiled.
- If the corporation distributes any written election material soliciting votes for any nominee for Director at the corporation's expense, it shall make available, at the corporation's expense, to each other nominee, in or with the same material, the same amount of space that is provided any other nominee, with equal prominence, to be used by the nominee for a purpose reasonably related to the election.

Generally, any person who is qualified to be elected to the Board of Directors shall be nominated at the annual meeting of members held for the purpose of electing Directors by any member present at the meeting in person or by proxy.

SECTION 12. ACTION BY UNANIMOUS WRITTEN CONSENT WITHOUT MEETING

Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, any action required, or permitted, to be taken by the members may be taken without a meeting, if and only if all members shall individually or collectively consent in writing to the action. The written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the members. The action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as the unanimous vote of the members.

SECTION 13. RECORD DATE FOR MEETINGS

Notwithstanding any provision of these Bylaws, no fixing of the record date for purposes of determining the members entitled to notice, voting rights, written ballot rights, or any other right with respect to a meeting of members or any other lawful membership action, shall contravene Title 29 of the District of Columbia Code.

ARTICLE V - DIRECTORS

(adopted 7 December 2008)

SECTION 5. COMPENSATION

Directors shall serve without compensation except that they shall be allowed and paid their actual and necessary expenses incurred in attending Directors meetings. In addition, they shall be allowed reasonable advancement or reimbursement for expenses incurred in the performance of their regular duties as specified in Section 3 of this Article. Directors may not be compensated for rendering services to the corporation in any capacity other than Director unless such other compensation is reasonable and is allowable under the provisions of Section 6 of this Article.

SECTION 6. RESTRICTION REGARDING INTERESTED DIRECTORS

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Bylaws, not more than forty-nine percent (49%) of the persons serving on the Board may be interested persons. For purposes of this Section, "interested persons" means either:

- Any person currently being compensated by the corporation for services rendered it within the previous twelve (12) months, whether as a full- or part-time officer or other employee, independent contractor, or otherwise, excluding any reasonable compensation paid to a Director as Director; or
- Any brother, sister, ancestor, descendant, married or unmarried spouse, legal domestic partner, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, father-in-law of the officer, or any person with joint financial interests with any such person.

SECTION 7. PLACE OF MEETINGS

Meetings shall be held at the principal office of the corporation unless otherwise provided by the Board or at such place within or without the District of Columbia which has been designated from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors. In the absence of such designation, any meeting not held at the principal office of the corporation shall be valid only if held on the written consent of all Directors given either before or after the meeting and filed with the Secretary of the corporation after all Board members have been given written notice of the meeting as hereinafter provided for special meetings of the Board. Any special meeting may be held by conference telephone or similar communication equipment, so long as all Directors participating in such meeting can readily communicate with all of the others.

SECTION 8. REGULAR MEETINGS

No formal actions may be taken during an Executive Session.

SECTION 9. SPECIAL MEETINGS

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by any two officers or Directors. Such meetings shall be held at a place designated by the person or persons calling the meeting, provided all those concerned may conveniently attend, and in the absence of such designation, at the principal offices of the corporation. Special meetings are understood, by their nature, to be limited to consideration and discussion of matters of extreme urgency.

SECTION 10. NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETINGS AND CONTENT OF NOTICE

Due to the urgent nature of special meetings, notice of the members is not required of the Board of Directors, save notice of such members, officers, employees or agents as may be applicable to the subject of the meeting. Notice may be by mail, telephone, in person, or by whatever means is most expeditious. The subject, import and outcome of such meetings shall be conveyed to the membership as soon as possible thereafter.

Any notice shall specify the place, day and hour of the meeting. The purpose of any Board meeting need not be specified in the notice.

SECTION 11. WAIVER OF NOTICE AND CONSENT TO HOLDING MEETINGS

The transactions of any meeting of the Board, however called and noticed or wherever held, are as valid as though the meeting had been duly held after proper call and notice, provided a quorum, as hereinafter defined, is present and provided that either before or after the meeting each director not present signs a waiver of notice, a consent to holding the meeting, or an approval of the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents, or approvals, shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

SECTION 12. QUORUM REQUIREMENTS

A quorum shall consist of a simple majority of the Board of Directors. Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws or in the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation, or by law, no business shall be considered by the Board at any meeting at which a quorum, as hereinafter defined, is not present, and the only motion which the Chair shall entertain at such meeting is a motion to adjourn. However, a majority of the Directors present at such meeting may adjourn from time to time until the time fixed for the next regular meeting of the Board.

When a meeting is adjourned for lack of a quorum, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at such meeting, other than by announcement at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, except as provided in Section 10 of this Article.

The Directors present at a duly called and held meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to do business notwithstanding the loss of a quorum at the meeting due to a withdrawal of Directors from the meeting, provided that any action thereafter taken must be approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting or such greater percentage as may be required by law, or the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of this corporation.

SECTION 13. MAJORITY ACTION AS BOARD ACTION

Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the Directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present is the act of the Board of Directors, unless the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of this corporation, or provisions of the District of Columbia Code, particularly those provision relating to appointment of committees, approval of contracts or transactions in which a Director has a material financial interest, and indemnification of directors, require a greater percentage or different voting rules for approval of a matter by the Board.

SECTION 14. CONDUCT OF MEETINGS

Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be presided over by the President of the Corporation or, in the President's absence, by a Chair chosen by a majority of the Directors present at the meeting. The Secretary of the corporation shall act as Secretary of all meetings of the Board, provided that in the Secretary's absence, the presiding officer shall appoint another person to act as Secretary of the Meeting.

Meetings shall be governed by Roberts' Rules of Order, as such rules may be revised from time to time, insofar as such rules are not inconsistent with or in conflict with these Bylaws, with the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation, or with provisions of law.

SECTION 15. ACTION BY UNANIMOUS WRITTEN CONSENT WITHOUT MEETING

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of directors under any provision of law may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. For the purposes of this Section only, "all members of the Board" shall not include any "interested Director" as defined in Title 29 of the District of Columbia Code. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board.

Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as the unanimous vote of the Directors. Any certificate or other document filed under any provision of law which relates to action so taken shall state that the action was taken by unanimous written consent of the Board of Directors without a meeting and that the Bylaws of this corporation authorize the directors to do act, and such statement shall be prima facie evidence of such authority.

SECTION 16. VACANCIES

Vacancies on the Board of Directors shall exist upon the death, resignation, or removal of any Director.

The Board of Directors may declare vacant the office of a Director who has been declared of unsound mind by a final order of the court, convicted of a felony, or been found by a final order or judgment of any court to have breached any duty in Title 29 of the District of Columbia Code, has missed more than half of the regular meetings of the Board of Directors, or by Resolution of the Board.

Any Director may resign effective upon giving written notice to the President, the Secretary, or the Board of Directors, unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of such resignation. No Director may resign if the corporation would then be left without a duly elected Director or Directors in charge of its affairs, except as provided for in Title 29 of the District of Columbia Code.

Vacancies on the Board may be filled pursuant to Article IV of these Bylaws. Filling a vacancy in the office of President, Treasurer or Secretary shall be governed by Article VI, Section 5 of these Bylaws. A person elected to fill such vacancy shall hold office until the expiration of the remainder of the term of the Director being replaced, or until their death, resignation or removal from office.

SECTION 17. NONLIABILITY OF DIRECTORS

The Directors shall not be, as such, personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or other obligations of the corporation.

SECTION 18. CORPORATE INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES AND OTHER CORPORATE AGENTS

To the extent that a person who is, or was, a Director, officer, employee or other agent of this corporation has been successful on the merits in defense of any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative proceeding brought to procure a judgment against such person by reason of the fact that he or she is, or was, an agent of the corporation, or has been successful in defense of any claim issue, or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such proceeding.

If such person either settles any such claim or sustains a judgment against him or her, then indemnification against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts reasonably incurred in connection with such proceedings shall be provided by this corporation by only to the extent allowed by, and in accordance with the requirements of Title 29 of the District of Columbia Code.

SECTION 19. INSURANCE FOR CORPORATE AGENTS
