iMessage...

You don't even know what that means.

Who is 'him'?

My brother!

He was visiting for one night.

One message.
One assumption.

I thought I had proof.

You had a screenshot...
Not the whole story.

Evidence can show you what happened.
Context can show you what it meant.

DIVORCE AGREEMENT

Without hesitation

She got almost nothing.

Then you should read this part.

DIVORCE AGREEMENT

5. Husband shall be responsible for all taxes resulting from the transfer of the marital assets.

6. Miscellaneous. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior discussions, understandings, and agreements, whether written or oral, relating to the subject matter hereof.

7. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the date written above.

Taxes?

On everything you just received.

DIVORCE AGREEMENT

That could be hundreds of thousands of dollars.

You knew?

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

That's why I agreed to give you everything.

You didn't win the divorce
You just signed the bill.

DIVORCE AGREEMENT

Sometimes, the biggest cost is hidden in the smallest sentence, so read before you sign and know what you're really agreeing to.

THE WRONG BATTLE

It's worth $40,000. I'm not giving it up.

You've been fighting over this for months.

Neither am I.

They were determined to win.

How much has this fight cost you?

Thousands in legal fees.

And months of our time.

And what has it cost your child?

Your child's teacher says they've been missing assignments… and asking why Mom and Dad are always fighting.

Our child said that?

Rivermere Elementary

Teacher's Note

Your child has been missing assignments lately. In class, they seem distracted and have mentioned feeling sad. They asked why Mom and Dad are always fighting.

We are concerned about their well-being.

Sincerely,

We were so focused on winning…

…we didn't notice what our child was losing.

The fight has a price. Make sure your child isn't the one paying it.

Some battles cost more than money. Sometimes, the greatest cost is the time and attention your child needed from you.

THE MILLION DOLLAR MYTH

She gets half of everything. That's how divorce works!

Everything.

DIVORCE PAPERS

Everything?

Not so fast.

Wait... you heard that?

Loud and clear. And that's one divorce myth worth correcting.

You're assuming she gets half of everything you own.

Isn't that the rule?

No. And here's the twist, you've been counting property that may not even be marital property.

The biggest mistake? Assuming everything you own belongs in the same pot.

So I could've agreed to split something that wasn't automatically subject to division?

Exactly, Divorce isn't about blindly cutting everything in half. It starts with knowing what actually belongs on the table.

Know the Law. Don't Assume the Rule.
