Formed

This week Formed continues to walk us through the Easter Season. A few things to look into: The Resurrection: What Catholics Believe. For the children and youth in your life: Our Heavenly Friends: The Saints, and Classroom Content. Liturgical Calendar: 12-St. Thersa of the Andes & 16-St. Bernadette.

Matthew Kelly on YouTube

If you are looking for insight each week, search for Matthew Kelly on YouTube. Each week he poses different topics to think about. This week take a look at Feed Your Soul: Find Peace in Your Life & 13 Signs You are Having a Midlife Crisis.

Shepherd's Thoughts

On this third Sunday of Easter, we continue to meet the Risen Christ. He sets the hearts of his disciples at peace and opens their minds to understand the message of the Scriptures concerning his destiny of pain and glory.

The Risen Lord continues to touch us and our lives as he did to his disciples after the resurrection. But the invitation to touch him and see his wounds and for us to recognize fully who he is for us came from him first.

We need to touch base with the real and the true. And It is only in the light of the truth of the Resurrection that we are able to make sense of the violent passion and death of Christ, along with so many realities that we cannot accept, let alone understand. It is only in the light of his resurrection and the eternal life he earned for us that we can come to accept the trials of life with faith and patience.

Only in the Risen Christ can we make sense and oppose the many forms of death that threaten our existence. In this Eucharist, let us pray with all earnestness: "Lord, we touch you today.

Fr. Antonio Rex M. Palaya
