KERMIS 2025

Our 14th Annual Kermis will be NEXT Sunday, August 31. Have you signed up to volunteer at the park? Sign up across from the elevator. Plan to attend our 14th Kermis and bring your family and friends. And don't forget to pray for good weather!

Shepherd's Thoughts

God is good, all the time! All the time, God is good!

Sharing the same faith in One God as our Creator reminds us of the late pope Francis' vision of a Synodal Church: A community of disciples in solidarity with the least fortunate regardless of our race, culture and nations. Thus, our first reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah emphasizes to us the universality of God's call seeking to unite us in grace, love and mercy. As it is written, "And I come to gather nations of every language; they shall come and see my glory" (Is 66:18-21).

There is no other way to share the love and mercy of God than to spread His words and teachings which is the main message of our Responsorial Psalm for us today: "Go out to all the world and tell the Good News" (Mk 16:15). "Glorify Him all you peoples!" Ps. 117:1, 2). As a Synodal Church, we should not be content with attending our Sunday liturgy with the same faces only every Sunday. Let us go out and seek for our brothers and sisters who are not with us today. Encourage our loved ones to celebrate with us in this beautiful communion of faith. And most importantly, let our examples of solidarity and charity bring others to Christ, after all, our actions as followers of Jesus will speak volumes of the faith that we all share.

How our parents have disciplined us may vary, but surely, it is for the same reason, to keep us on the right track. Our children will never learn going to Church if we never accompany and introduce them to this celebration of faith. Thus, our second reading reminds us that God, being our Father, does the same for us; He wants us to grow in righteousness.

In our lifetime, what seems to be endless rules, doctrines and limitations, are but God's ways of instilling discipline in us. As it is written, "God treats you as sons. For what "son" is there whom his father does not discipline? At the time, all discipline seems a cause not for joy but for pain, yet later it brings the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who are trained by it" (Heb 12:5-7, 11-13).

Nowadays, when people have been accustomed to almost everything instant and automatic, our Gospel gives us a strong reminder that salvation does not work that way, it requires consistent efforts. Thus, Jesus reminds us to always "Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough" (Lk 13:22-30). In this passage, we are given the message to treat our faith with a sense of urgency so that when the day comes, we can all be worthy to sit at the Lord's banquet.

We are almost reaching the end of our Jubilee year of hope and I am happy that our Church has stood by all the challenges she has encountered. As her members, I admire all of you for staying true to our faith. Let us all pray for each other that we may all one day pass through the narrow gate of eternal peace which God has prepared for us.
