Shepherd's Thoughts

God is Good, all the time! All the time, God is Good!

As I reflected on this Sunday's readings, three important values emerged: to live in righteousness, to give unselfishly, and to grow through conversion.

First, to live in righteousness. We may think that a mistake or wrong choice has already determined our story. Yet Ezekiel reminds us that when a person turns from wrongdoing and chooses what is right, "he shall preserve his life" (Ez 18:27). God does not define us by our past; what matters is our willingness to choose what is right today.

That is why we pray, "Remember your mercies, O Lord" (Ps 25:6). We rely not only on our own goodness, but on the mercy of God, who patiently calls us home.

This mercy also teaches us to give unselfishly. Saint Paul urges us, "Humbly regard others as more important than yourselves" (Phil 2:3). He points us to Jesus, who emptied Himself, became a servant, and "humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross" (Phil 2:8). Following Christ means letting go of pride and offering ourselves in love and service.

Such self-giving leads us to the third value: to grow through conversion. In the Gospel, one son said, "I will not," but afterwards "changed his mind and went" (Mt 21:29), while the other said yes but did not go. The difference was not merely in their words, but in their actions.

We may say "yes" to God every Sunday, but does our daily life reflect it? Even when our choices have expressed a "no," it is never too late to turn back and begin again.

God is not asking for a perfect past, but for a willing heart today—ready to choose what is right, give unselfishly, and keep returning to Him.

Reflection Line:

It is never too late to turn back to God; a sincere change of heart can become a new beginning.

Takeaway Thought:

Let our "yes" to God be seen not only in our words, but in how we live, love, give, forgive, and serve.

MEN'S CURSILLO WEEKEND

Two men from our Parish are attending the Cursillo Weekend at Holy Family Parish in Brillion (September 24-27). They are discovering how Christ is already present in their lives by spending time understanding God's love for them, how to grow closer to Jesus and how to build lasting connections with fellow believers. They are focusing on deepening their relationship with God, their neighbors and the world around them. We offer our prayers that they will continue to grow in faith and actively live that faith more fully in their daily lives. The next Women's Cursillo weekend is October 22-25 at the Most Precious Blood Parish in New London. Contact Jared Spude if you wish to learn more about this faith opportunity.

GATHERING SPACE CONSTRUCTION UPDATE

We are coming close to the completion of construction! In order for us to prepare for moving into our new space we need some help. On Friday evening October 10 (5:30), Saturday October 11 (9:00 a.m.) and Sunday October 12 (after Mass), we need volunteers to clean, move boxes and various items from the basement to the upstairs, and arrange the new spaces so everything goes where it belongs. Please consider helping for any or all of these times.

Dynamic Catholic

Find inspiration from fellow Catholic worshipers, like Matthew Kelly and others, as we journey through our life. This week reflect with a couple options: Gospel Reflection: The Simple Path to Happiness or Radical & Relevant: The Ultimate Lesson in Forgiveness.
