WORD OF LIFE

15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: BEAR FRUIT

"A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seed fell on the path, and birds came and ate it up... But some seed fell on rich soil and produced fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold." (Mt 13:3-9)

We do not need many explanations to understand the parable of the sower. Rather, we need to be honest in order to acknowledge that we have received the seed and that it has not always borne fruit, or all the fruit that it could have produced. It is not that the seed is not good, but rather because we, the farmers, have not taken care of the soil. We have not taken advantage of God's gifts. Maybe mediocrity is part of human nature, but it is still a pity, a great loss. It is worth remembering those verses by José María Pemán in his work "The Divine Impatient One," as spoken by Saint Francis Xavier:

"I am more a friend of the wind, Madame,
than of the breeze.
good must be done quickly,
so that evil does not waste a moment."

We often complain about things that go wrong. Why do we not ask ourselves what we could do, what we have done or what we are doing so that they go well? No one will blame us for not having done the good we cannot do, but our sins of omission will be written on our account for ever and they will probably constitute the longest, darkest, and heaviest part on the day of judgment.

Purpose: Every time you feel like complaining about something that goes bad in your job, your family or in society, think: "What can I do? What have I done? What am I doing?" And do it.

PALABRA DE VIDA

DOMINGO XV DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO: DAR FRUTO

"Salió el sembrador a sembrar. Al sembrar, un poco cayó al borde del camino; vinieron los pájaros y se lo comieron.... El resto cayó en tierra buena y dio grano: unos ciento, otros sesenta, otros treinta" (Mt 13, 3-9)

No necesitamos muchas explicaciones para entender la parábola del sembrador. Necesitamos más bien honradez para reconocer que en cada uno de nosotros se ha producido la siembra y en cambio no siempre se ha producido el fruto, o todo el fruto que podría haberse dado. Y no es porque la semilla no fuera buena, o porque no fuera bueno el campo, sino más bien porque el labrador -nosotros- no hemos cuidado el terreno, no hemos sabido sacar partido a los dones de Dios. Quizá la mediocridad sea propia de la naturaleza humana, pero aun así es una lástima, una gran pérdida. Cabe recordar aquellos versos de José María Pemán, en "El divino impaciente", puestos en boca de San Francisco Javier:

"Soy más amigo del viento, señora, que de la brisa.
Y hay que hacer el bien de prisa,
Que el mal no pierde momento".

Nos quejamos con frecuencia de las cosas que van mal. ¿Por qué no nos preguntamos qué podríamos hacer, qué hemos hecho o qué estamos haciendo para que vayan bien?. Nadie te culpará de no haber hecho el bien que no puedes hacer, pero tus pecados de omisión serán inscritos en tu cuenta para siempre y probablemente constituirán la parte más larga, más oscura, más pesada en el día del juicio.

Propósito: Cada vez que tengas ganas de quejarte de algo que va mal, en tu trabajo, familia o sociedad, piensa: ¿Qué puedo hacer, qué he hecho, qué estoy haciendo? Y haz algo.

PRAYER

Jesus, I trust in you.

I know that whatever happens to me is a fruit of your love.

Jesus, I love you.

You are first in my heart.

Jesus, I adore you.

You are more important than my job, my money or any other thing.

Jesus, I GIVE YOU THANKS

For having created me, for having become man, for having died and risen from the dead, for the Eucharist and Confession, for the Church, the Blessed Virgin Mary and the saints, for the things that I have had, for the things that I have, because I am able to help others, and for the affection that I receive.

Jesus, I ask for your forgiveness.

For the evil that I have committed and for the good I have failed to do.

Jesus, I ask for your help.

I ask for spiritual graces, such as the overcoming of my defects and for material help, for me, for others and for society.

Jesus, I offer myself to you.

You can count on me for whatever you want.

LIKE MARY.

With the tenderness of your mother and through Her way of living by living the virtues.
Amen.

“The seed is the word of God, Christ is the Sower. All who come to him will have life forever.”

GUIDELINES FOR RECEIVING THE EUCHARIST

You are not to eat or drink anything except for water or required medicine, for one hour before actually receiving communion. This is called the Communion or Eucharist fast. It is meant to help us focus on our Lord and what we are about to receive. Chewing gum, candy, mints, etc. during Mass is therefore inappropriate. Both forms for receiving the host are acceptable, in the palm of one hand with the other hand underneath, or on the extended tongue. Extend your hands palm-side up toward the priest and stand as close to the priest as possible when receiving Communion. Never take the host from the priest. After receiving the Eucharist, you say Amen. Proper reverence and respect is most important, hands should be reverently folded while waiting to receive the Sacrament.

DIRECTRICES PARA RECIBIR LA EUCARISTÍA

No debes comer ni beber nada excepto agua o medicinas necesarias durante una hora antes de recibir la comunión. Esto se llama ayuno de la Comunión o Eucaristía. Esto es para ayudarnos a centrarnos en nuestro Señor y en lo que estamos a punto de recibir. Por tanto, masticar chicle, caramelos, mentas, etc. durante la misa es inapropiado. Ambas formas de recibir la hostia son aceptables, en la palma de una mano con la otra mano debajo, o en la lengua extendida. Extiende las manos con las palmas hacia arriba hacia el sacerdote y quédate lo más cerca posible del sacerdote al recibir la Comunión. Nunca le quites la hostia al sacerdote. Después de recibir la Eucaristía, dices Amén. La reverencia y el respeto adecuados son lo más importante; las manos deben estar cruzadas con reverencia mientras esperan recibir el Sacramento.

OCIA Classes Wednesdays: 7-8:30p in Social Hall
For Catholics and non-Catholics who wish to gain knowledge and information about the Catholic faith. The classes are also for those Catholic adults and high schoolers that have not completed their sacraments. The classes begin in September and will be completed by Easter.

Children's Religious Education

~Faith Formation~ Saint Stephen provides opportunities for each person to receive the Sacraments and grow in greater communion with our Lord. Classes are for 1st – 8th grades and they meet Sundays at 9a Sept. to May.

Baptism - For a child to be baptized, you must be attending Mass regularly, attend a Baptism class and fill out a registration form. Classes are held the last Sunday of every month at 1pm and must be completed prior to scheduling baptism date. One Godparent must be an active Catholic and attend class as well. A copy of the Child's Birth Certificate is needed at time of registration. Please contact the Office for scheduling.

Matrimony - Arrangements must be made at least 6 months in advance of the proposed date. Participation in a marriage preparation program is required. Couples contemplating marriage MUST meet with the priest before setting a date.

Anointing of the Sick - Fr. Estrada is offering Anointing of the Sick at First Friday's Mass at 5:30p.

Active Parishioner Status - Each year we receive many requests from parishioners to qualify for weddings, be godparents or sponsors. An active member is one who is properly registered with the Parish office, regularly gives offertory, attends parish activities when possible and most importantly faithfully attends Mass on Sunday's and Holy days of Obligation. Even though you attend Mass, if you are not registered with the Parish, we have no information about you and you may not eligible to be Sponsors, Godparents, etc. While assessments of an inquirer's status will be made individually, the above are the main factors that will be considered in making that determination.
