The Epiphany of the Lord: Give with Joy

"They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house, they saw the child with Mary, his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh." (Mt 2: 10-11).

WORD OF LIFE

The feast of the Epiphany is liturgically the feast of the Presentation of the Lord Himself, and His message to all peoples, which are represented in the Three Magi. Tradition, however, has always focused on the aspect that the Magi offered the Child Jesus and His parents some gifts; that is why, at least for the Spanish-speaking countries, this day has become the day in which we exchange gifts with others as a sign of our affection.

Instead of just complaining about waste and consumerism, we should focus on the fact that Jesus, today as when He was born in Bethlehem, is still in need of gifts, of our help. First,

Jesus wants us to offer ourselves to Him by telling Him sincerely, but not with empty words, that He is the first and most important person in our lives. Then, we can think about what else He would like us to give Him, taking into account that God is present in the neighbor who is in need: the sick, the lonely, the hungry; in short, anyone who needs help.

May we become like the Magi, giving our hearts to Jesus and our love to our neighbor. Let's do it joyfully because helping the Lord is a privilege, a great gift—in fact, the greatest gift that a human being can aspire to.

Purpose: Offer yourself to the Lord in prayer. Joyfully, offer your best to Him and those who need your help because it is a blessing to be able to do so.

Epifanía: Dar con alegría

"Al ver la estrella se llenaron de inmensa alegría. Entraron en la casa, vieron al niño con María, su madre, y cayendo de rodillas lo adoraron; después, abriendo sus cofres, le ofrecieron regalos: oro, incienso y mirra" (Mt 2, 10-11).

PALABRA DE VIDA

La fiesta de la Epifanía es, litúrgicamente, la fiesta de la presentación del Señor y de su mensaje a todos los pueblos, representados estos en los tres Magos. La tradición, sin embargo, se ha fijado siempre en el detalle de que los Magos ofrecieron al Niño Jesús y a sus padres unos dones, unos regalos, de ahí, al menos en los países latinos, el que este día se haya convertido en el momento elegido para hacer llegar a los demás unos presentes como muestra de nuestro afecto.

En lugar de limitarnos a quejarnos contra el despilfarro y el consumismo, podemos fijarnos en que Jesús sigue, hoy como cuando nació en Belén, necesitado de regalos, de ayuda. Lo primero que quiere de ti es que seas tú mismo el que te ofrezcas a Él y eso lo harás cuando le digas, con sinceridad y no sólo con palabras vacías, que Él es lo primero en tu vida, lo más importante. Después, puedes pensar en qué cosas le gustarían a Él que tú le dieras, teniendo en cuenta que Dios está presente en el prójimo que pasa necesidad: el enfermo, el solitario, el hambriento, en definitiva, en todo aquel que necesita ayuda.

Sé tú un rey Mago. Dale tu corazón a Jesús y tu amor al prójimo. Y hazlo con alegría, porque ayudar al Señor es un privilegio, un gran don, el más grande al que puede aspirar un ser humano.

Propósito: Ofrecernos al Señor, ofrecerle lo mejor que tenemos, dándoselo a Él en la oración y en los que necesitan ayuda, y hacerlo con alegría porque es un don poderle ayudar.

PRAYER

Jesus, I trust in you.

I know that whatever happens to me is a fruit of your love.

Jesus, I love you.

You are first in my heart.

Jesus, I adore you.

You are more important than my job, my money or any other thing.

Jesus, I GIVE YOU THANKS

For having created me, for having become man, for having died and risen from the dead, for the Eucharist and Confession, for the Church, the Blessed Virgin Mary and the saints, for the things that I have had, for the things that I have, because I am able to help others, and for the affection that I receive.

Jesus, I ask for your forgiveness.

For the evil that I have committed and for the good I have failed to do.

Jesus, I ask for your help.

I ask for spiritual graces, such as the overcoming of my defects and for material help, for me, for others and for society.

Jesus, I offer myself to you.

You can count on me for whatever you want.

LIKE MARY.

With the tenderness of your mother and through Her way of living by living the virtues. Amen.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

The journey of the Magi reflects how treacherous our Christian life on earth can be. Always, evil works against us — Satan lays traps. He sows confusion. May we, like the Magi, recognize the will of God as our guiding star.

Observances for the week of January 4, 2026

Sunday: The Epiphany of the Lord
Monday: St. John Neumann, Bishop
Tuesday: St. André Bessette, Religious
Wednesday: St. Raymond of Penyafort, Priest
Next Sunday: The Baptism of the Lord

Virtues, Explained!

The virtue of love seeks the good of the other, a reflection of the love of God who created us for this very purpose. In practicing this virtue, we express the fullness of our identities as sons and daughters of God. In true Christian love, we find freedom.

Epiphany Blessing

Dear God,
It was You who inspired the Magi to follow the star to find You.
Inspire us to seek You, as well.
Bless our homes and families this season, make them places where we can encounter You through prayer and community.
Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When I was 22, I went on a pilgrimage to Rome for the Jubilee Year of 2000. I was traveling light with just a backpack, one blue shirt and black pants, little money, and no Italian. I had a few close friends and one goal: to reach the Eternal City. Despite the challenges and deprivations, I felt alive in a way I had never known before.

When do you feel most alive? I'd wager it's not when you're most comfortable or surrounded by stuff. Rather, it's when your life is aimed at something great; when you're on a meaningful and challenging journey with good friends.

That's the image the Magi give us in today's Gospel. They set out from the East not with certainty, but with hope. They study the signs, discipline their attention, and journey together, offering the best they have when they find the newborn King.

The Church gives us their story at the start of the year to reawaken something in us. We are not meant to drift. We're meant to journey as pilgrims. The Jubilee Year of 2025 may have ended, but our pilgrimage has not. Like the magi, the closer we get to Christ, the more alive we become.

WE PRAY TOGETHER

Heavenly Father, who in Your providence have brought us together at this time and in this place, we ask You to guide, inspire, and bless our Diocese of Savannah and the Harvest of Hope campaign.

Provide us, Your children, with the rich soil of faith, hope, and love, that the seeds we are planting now will bear abundant fruit for generations.

As we work together for the full coming of Your kingdom, O Lord, may we find a new way of belonging to You and to one another, rejoicing always in Your generosity.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE BENEFITS OF TAX ADVANTAGED GIVING

Gifts From An IRA

An IRA owner, age 70 1/2 or older, can directly transfer up to $108,000 per year to an eligible charity tax-free in 2025. This option can be used for distributions from IRAs, regardless of whether the owners itemize their deductions. To qualify, the funds must be transferred directly by the IRA trustee to the Harvest of Hope campaign. Distributed amounts may be excluded from the IRA owner's income, resulting in lower taxable income for the IRA owner.

Gifts Of Stock

Donors can use their broker/agent to transfer stock. If the stock has been held long-term (over one year), the donor does not have to pay capital gains tax on the stock and is allowed a tax deduction for the full value of the stock. Stock must first be transferred to the Harvest of Hope campaign before being liquidated. Ensure that the donor name and parish are provided on the check and on all paperwork to the diocese.

To ensure our parish receives credit for an IRA gift or a stock transfer, please visit diosav.org/hope and complete the relevant forms

Guidelines for Receiving the Eucharist

You are not to eat or drink anything except for water or required medicine, for one hour before actually receiving communion. This is called the Communion or Eucharist fast. It is meant to help us focus on our Lord and what we are about to receive. Chewing gum, candy, mints, etc. during Mass is therefore inappropriate. Both forms for receiving the host are acceptable, in the palm of one hand with the other hand underneath, or on the extended tongue. Extend your hands palm-side up toward the priest and stand as close to the priest as possible when receiving Communion. Never take the host from the priest. After receiving the Eucharist, you say Amen. Proper reverence and respect is most important, hands should be reverently folded while waiting to receive the Sacrament.

SCAM WARNING

Please note: If you receive a request for gift cards purporting to be from your pastor, parish, or the Bishop, it is a scam and should be ignored. If you aren't sure if an email or message is authentic, do not reply. Check with the person or parish using another method.

Linen Ministry

The Linen Ministry is looking for a few more parishioners to join the current members in washing the altar linen for a month-long period. With the current number of members, you would only have to wash the linen one to two times each year. We could really use some help. The new schedule will be published in January 2026.

If you would like to join this group, please contact the Parish Office or Wendy Farace (912-271-2051) to sign up.

St Vincent de Paul Holiday Season Outreach Generosity of Our Parishioners

Through the remarkable generosity shown by our parishioners during this holiday season, the St Stephen St Vincent de Paul Food Pantry was able to make a significant impact in our parish and community.

Thanksgiving Food Assistance

In November, the Food Pantry provided Thanksgiving food boxes to 51 families, reaching a total of 111 adults and 97 children. These efforts ensured that many families in need were able to celebrate Thanksgiving with a nutritious meal.

Christmas Food Distribution

On December 18th, Christmas food boxes were distributed to 47 families, supporting 101 adults and 86 children. This continued outreach brought comfort and joy to many households during the festive season.

Angel Tree Gift Program

The Angel Tree program provided Christmas gifts for each of the 86 children from the participating families. Additionally, the Angel Tree supplied gifts for Father Eder to distribute to children at St. Joseph in Jesup further extending the spirit of giving beyond our immediate parish community. Gifts were also donated for St. Stephen's Three Kings Celebration in January,

Our St Vincent de Paul's ministry of giving would not have been successful without your wonderful generosity. Thank you!!!

We wish you all a very Merry Christmas and many blessings in the new year.

Active Parishioner Status

Each year we receive many requests from parishioners to qualify for weddings, be godparents or sponsors for the Sacrament of Confirmation, Communion and Baptism. When a request is made, we must be able to verify that a person is an "active member" of St. Stephen's Parish.

An active member is one who 1) Is properly registered with the Parish office and gives regular to the offertory through envelopes or online giving. 2) Faithfully attends Mass on Sunday's and Holy days of Obligation.

Even though you attend Mass, if you are not registered with the Parish, we have no information about you and you are not eligible to be Sponsors, God-parents, etc. While assessments of an inquirer's status will be made individually, the above are the main factors that will be considered in making that determination. Please be sure to register with the office and keep your information up to date! You can easily send an email to ssfmcc399@gmail.com to make changes.
