4th Sunday of Advent: Take Mary Home

“Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home. For it is through the Holy Spirit that this child has been conceived in her....’ When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took his wife into his home.” (Mt 1:20-24).

WORD OF LIFE

It was not easy for Saint Joseph to accept the news that his spouse was with child without having relations with him. Without God’s intervention, Mary would have had to assume the difficult condition of being a single mother and Jesus would have had to bear the stigma of being the son of an unknown father. But Saint Joseph’s fear also has a symbolic meaning: the fear of allowing the Son of God into his life. The Son of God who did not come with the proper raiment of

His rank, for if that had been the case, no one would have hesitated to accept Him with all the honors due Him. On the contrary, He came swaddled in weakness, the weakness of a poor child, so poor that He had only the arms and the heart of a very young Nazarene woman to defend Him.

The same thing can happen to us for fear of making our lives more complicated or for fear of what God might ask of us. So, we turn a deaf ear to the voice of the An-gel of the Lord, who invites us to take into our home the Virgin Mary with a Child in her womb, with her Child in her arms. We do not want any trouble. But since problems cannot be avoided, we are plagued by our sin, our own selfishness, and the temptations of the Enemy. Taking Mary home, as Joseph did, is synonymous with accepting what God asks of us. It is accepting the law of love as the supreme law in our lives.

Rejecting Mary is not making life easier, but rather complicating it in a more harmful way for both others and ourselves. So, whether we align our-selves with God and Mary or with the Enemy is totally up to us.

Purpose: Participate in the Schools of Gratitude and in the formation courses. Help whoever needs you, being aware that, by doing so, you allow God to enter your life.

Domingo IV Adviento: Llevar a María a casa

“José, hijo de David, no tengas reparo en llevarte a María, tu mujer porque la criatura que hay en ella viene del Espíritu Santo’. Cuana José se despertó hizo lo que le había mandado el ángel del Señor y : llevó a casa a su mujer”. (Mt 1, 18-24).

PALABRA DE VIDA

No fue fácil para San José aceptar la noticia de que su mujer estaba embarazada sin haber tenido relaciones con él. Sin la intervención de Dios, María habría tenido que asumir la dura condición de madre soltera y Jesús habría llevado el baldón de ser un hijo de padre desconocido. Pero ese miedo de San José tiene también un significado simbólico: el miedo a dejar entrar en la propia vida al Hijo de Dios. A un Hijo de Dios que no venía con los ropajes propios de su rango, pues si así hubiera sido, nadie habría dudado en aceptarle con todos los honores. Por el contrario, venía camuflado de debilidad, de la debilidad de un niño pobre, tan pobre que sólo tenía para defenderle los brazos y el corazón de una jovencísima muchacha nazarena.

También a nosotros nos puede pasar lo mismo: por miedo a complicarnos la vida, por miedo a lo que Dios nos pueda pedir, hacemos oídos sordos a la voz del ángel del Señor, que nos invita a llevarnos a nuestra casa a la Virgen con el Niño en su seno, con el Niño en los brazos. No queremos líos y, efectivamente, no tenemos los líos de Dios. Pero como los problemas no se pueden evitar, tenemos, a cambio, los que proceden del enemigo, del pecado, de nuestro propio egoísmo. Llevarse a María a casa, como hizo San José, es sinónimo de aceptar lo que Dios nos pida, de aceptar la ley del amor como la suprema de nuestra vida. Rechazar a María no es simplificar la vida, sino complicarla de otra manera, de una manera más dañina para nosotros y también para los demás. De nosotros depende con quién nos complicamos la vida: si con Dios y María o con sus enemigos.

Propósito: Participar en las escuelas de agradecimiento y en los cursos de formación. Ayudar a quien nos necesita, conscientes de que así dejamos entrar a Dios en nuestra vida.

PRAYER

Jesus, I trust in you.

I know that whatever happens to me is a fruit of your love.

Jesus, I love you.

You are first in my heart.

Jesus, I adore you.

You are more important than my job, my money or any other thing.

Jesus, I GIVE YOU THANKS

For having created me, for having become man, for having died and risen from the dead, for the Eucharist and Confession, for the Church, the Blessed Virgin Mary and the saints, for the things that I have had, for the things that I have, because I am able to help others, and for the affection that I receive.

Jesus, I ask for your forgiveness.

For the evil that I have committed and for the good I have failed to do.

Jesus, I ask for your help.

I ask for spiritual graces, such as the overcoming of my defects and for material help, for me, for others and for society.

Jesus, I offer myself to you.

You can count on me for whatever you want.

LIKE MARY.

With the tenderness of your mother and through Her way of living by living the virtues. Amen.

Hail Mary

JESÚS me fío de ti, te quiero,

te adoro, te doy gracias,

te pido perdón, te pido gracias,

y me ofrezco a ti, como MARÍA.

Amén.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Therefore the Lord himself will give you this sign:
the virgin shall conceive, and bear a son,
and shall name him Emmanuel. (Isa 7:14)

Psalm:

Let the Lord enter; he is king of glory. (Ps 24)

Second Reading:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. (Rom 1:7)

Gospel:

"Joseph, son of David,
do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home.
For it is through the Holy Spirit
that this child has been conceived in her.
She will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins." (Mt 1:20-21)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Sometimes we want God's instructions to be clear and precise — like the angel in Joseph's dream. But Joseph's understanding was only as strong as his devotion to God's will. If we give our lives to God as Joseph did, we will know what he asks of us.

Guidelines for Receiving the Eucharist

You are not to eat or drink anything except for water or required medicine, for one hour before actually receiving communion. This is called the Communion or Eucharist fast. It is meant to help us focus on our Lord and what we are about to receive. Chewing gum, candy, mints, etc. during Mass is therefore inappropriate. Both forms for receiving the host are acceptable, in the palm of one hand with the other hand underneath, or on the extended tongue. Extend your hands palm-side up toward the priest and stand as close to the priest as possible when receiving Communion. Never take the host from the priest. After receiving the Eucharist, you say Amen. Proper reverence and respect is most important, hands should be reverently folded while waiting to receive the Sacrament.

SCAM WARNING

Please note: If you receive a request for gift cards purporting to be from your pastor, parish, or the Bishop, it is a scam and should be ignored. If you aren't sure if an email or message is authentic, do not reply. Check with the person or parish using another method.

HARVEST of HOPE / COSECHA de ESPERANZA

Harvest of Hope Promotes Tax Advantaged Giving

THE BENEFITS OF TAX ADVANTAGED GIVING

Gifts From An IRA

An IRA owner, age 70 1/2 or older, can directly transfer up to $108,000 per year to an eligible charity tax-free in 2025. This option can be used for distributions from IRAs, regardless of whether the owners itemize their deductions. To qualify, the funds must be transferred directly by the IRA trustee to the Harvest of Hope campaign. Distributed amounts may be excluded from the IRA owner's income, resulting in lower taxable income for the IRA owner.

Gifts Of Stock

Donors can use their broker/agent to transfer stock. If the stock has been held long-term (over one year), the donor does not have to pay capital gains tax on the stock and is allowed a tax deduction for the full value of the stock. Stock must first be transferred to the Harvest of Hope campaign before being liquidated. Ensure that the donor name and parish are provided on the check and on all paperwork to the diocese.

To ensure our parish receives credit for an IRA gift or a stock transfer, please visit diosav.org/hope and complete the relevant forms

COSECHA de ESPERANZA

So far we have been given $29,627 towards our Harvest of Hope goal, with an additional $67,000 pledged to be paid to our goal. This has us at 40% of our goal for the Harvest of Hope, we encourage everyone to make a pledge for the upcoming 3 years to help us reach our overall goal of $247,268.00.

Active Parishioner Status

Each year we receive many requests from parishioners to qualify for weddings, be godparents or sponsors for the Sacrament of Confirmation, Communion and Baptism. When a request is made, we must be able to verify that a person is an "active member" of St. Stephen's Parish.

An active member is one who 1) Is properly registered with the Parish office and gives regular to the offertory through envelopes or online giving. 2) Faithfully attends Mass on Sunday's and Holy days of Obligation.

Even though you attend Mass, if you are not registered with the Parish, we have no information about you and you are not eligible to be Sponsors, God-parents, etc. While assessments of an inquirer's status will be made individually, the above are the main factors that will be considered in making that determination. Please be sure to register with the office and keep your information up to date! You can easily send an email to ssfmcc399@gmail.com to make changes.

OCIA Classes Wednesday Evenings: 7-8:30p in Social Hall

For Catholics and non-Catholics who wish to gain knowledge and information about the Catholic faith. The classes are also for those Catholic adults and high schoolers that have not completed their sacraments. The classes begin in September and will be completed by Easter. For additional information please call the office.

Religious Education

Saint Stephen the First Martyr Catholic Church provides opportunities for each person to receive the Sacraments and grow in greater communion with our Lord. Classes are available starting with 1st graders and meet Sundays Sept. through May.

Matrimony

Arrangements must be made at least 6 months in advance of the proposed date. Participation in a marriage preparation program is required. Couples contemplating marriage MUST meet with the priest before setting a date.

Baptism

For a child to be baptized, you must be attending Mass regularly, attend a Baptism class and fill out a registration form. Classes are held the last Sunday of every month at 1pm and must be completed prior to scheduling baptism date. One Godparent must be an active Catholic and attend class as well. A copy of the Child's Birth Certificate is needed at time of registration. Please contact the Office for scheduling.

Anointing of the Sick

Fr. Estrada is offering Anointing of the Sick during the First Friday's Mass at 12p. If needed at another time please contact the office or Father Estrada directly.

Prayer Ministry

The Prayer Ministry provides prayer support to our parishioners and to the community. There is a Prayer Intention book at the back of the church for you to write your prayer request or you can make a prayer request by email: ssfmccprayerministry@gmail.com
