Exalted Ruler Message

Greetings Elks Family,

I hope everyone is enjoying their summer so far!

Once again, I am excited to be traveling to Chicago this month for the Grand Lodge Convention. This year is especially meaningful, as the convention coincides with the 100th Anniversary of the Elks National Memorial—a wonderful milestone in our Order's history.

While I'm away, we'll still have plenty happening here at the Lodge, so be sure to check out our calendar page for all of the upcoming events and activities.

As many of you celebrate Independence Day and attend fireworks displays throughout our area, I wish you a fun and safe holiday. Please take care and enjoy time with your family and friends.

I also want to remind everyone that we have many volunteer opportunities available. Whether you can give a little time or a lot, your help is always appreciated and plays an important role in making our Lodge stronger.

As always, let us remember the virtues of our Order: Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love, and Fidelity.

Thank you for everything you do for our Lodge and for our community. Your dedication and support are what make our Lodge such a special place.

In closing, my words for the year remain:

Peace, Harmony, and Fellowship.

Fraternally yours,

Missy Dillman
