_____ has my permission to try out for GZA All-Star Cheer team. I understand that team placements stand and will understand the coach's decision. I agree to give the coaches 48 hours after the team announcement before I ask for a meeting regarding placement. I am aware that there are extra costs involved other than monthly tuition. I acknowledge that all-star cheer is a huge financial and time commitment.

- ☐ I give my athlete permission to be placed on more than one team. I understand that this comes with extra competition fees that will be billed the month of that competition as well as additional team practice wear and outfits.
- ☐ I DO NOT want my athlete on more than one team.
- ☐ I will accept for my athlete to be an alternate for a second team.

Parent/Athlete contract

Making a team on Ground Zero Athletics is a huge honor and not to be taken lightly. I understand that being placed on a team is entering a contract. I agree to the following and will uphold the rules of the handbook and code of conduct.

- If an athlete is removed from a team due to breaking GZA rules the remaining yearly balance will be due and charged with the card on file.
- If an athlete quits a team position the remaining yearly balance will be due plus a $100 fee and will be charged to the card on file.
- If an athlete quits after choreography a $500 re-choreography will be charged plus the remaining yearly fees. $1,000 quitting fee for mid-end of season.
- Coaches reserve the right to move up an athlete due to improvements, as well the right to move down an athlete due regression and or lack of effort.
- Coaches reserve the right to make an athlete sit out of a competition if there are any safety concerns with stunting, tumbling or transitions.
- Coaches reserves the right to remove an athlete from the team for any bullying or ongoing behavior issues without improvement with no refunds. If this occurs the remaining yearly balance will be due and charged with the card on file.
- Coaches reserve the right to remove an athlete due to ongoing attendance issues with no refunds. If this occurs the remaining yearly balance will be due and charged with the card on file.
- If you are leaving another program and coming to GZA all outstanding fees must be paid to the previous program. You must have left this program on good terms.
- If you are coming in mid season you must have a letter of release from the former gym and all fees paid.
- If my athlete makes a team, I understand all Choreography dates are mandatory and will plan accordingly.
- I have received the Parent/Athlete handbook and will abide by it fully.
- I understand that end of season events are mandatory and must stay in designated hotel set by gym.
