Our Mission Statement Reflects Our Spirit

"Our Lady of the Angels is a worshipping community dedicated to the education and spiritual growth of the whole parish family. With guidance from the Holy Spirit we extend our Christian love to the community we serve. We proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord with all our hearts and we welcome all to join us on our journey in following Him."

A Few Words From Fr. Dariusz.....

Happy Fathers' Day! Congratulations and best wishes to all of our fathers and father figures. We are grateful for your support, and guidance, and directions, your patience, your dedication and most of all your unselfish love. For those fathers who are not with as any longer, we pray to the Lord to take them to the place of happiness and peace.

Father's Day is a celebration of honoring fathers and celebrating fatherhood, paternal bonds, and the influence of fathers in society. Father's Day was founded in Spokane, Washington at the YMCA in 1910 by Sonora Smart Dodd, who was born in Arkansas. Its first celebration was on June 19, 1910. Her father, the Civil War veteran William Jackson Smart, was a single parent who raised his six children there. After hearing a sermon about Jarvis' Mother's Day in 1909, she told her pastor that fathers should have a similar holiday honoring them.

Since 1938 she had the help of the Father's Day Council, founded by the New York Associated Men's Wear Retailers to consolidate and systematize the commercial promotion. Americans resisted the holiday during a few decades, perceiving it as just an attempt by merchants to replicate the commercial success of Mother's Day, and newspapers frequently featured cynical and sarcastic attacks and jokes. But the trade groups did not give up: they kept promoting it and even incorporated the jokes into their adverts, and they eventually succeeded. By the mid 1980s the Father's Day Council wrote that "Father's Day has become a 'Second Christmas' for all the men's gift-oriented industries." A bill to accord national recognition of the holiday was introduced in Congress in 1913. In 1916, President Woodrow Wilson went to Spokane to speak in a Father's Day celebration and wanted to make it official, but Congress resisted. US President Calvin Coolidge recommended in 1924 that the day be observed by the nation. In 1957, Maine Senator Margaret Chase Smith wrote a proposal accusing Congress of ignoring fathers for 40 years while honoring mothers, thus "[singling] out just one of our two parents". In 1966, President Lyndon B. Johnson issued the first presidential proclamation honoring fathers, designating the third Sunday in June as Father's Day. Six years later, the day was made a permanent national holiday when President Richard Nixon signed it into law in 1972. A few words regarding the readings for this Sunday.

Jeremiah the Prophet lived in Israel about 600 years before Christ. He was called by God to warn God's people about the destruction that was going to happen because of their infidelity. Jeremiah was preaching that there was a way to be saved by living their lives according to God's laws. The people did not like the message and he was killed.

The First Reading reflects the pain, suffering, and disappointment he experienced for being faithful to his calling and mission. In spite of that, Jeremiah expressed confidence that the Lord would protect him and take vengeance on his persecutors.

In the Second Reading, St Paul draws a contrast between Christ and Adam: sin came into the world through Adam; abundant grace came through Jesus Christ. In other words, one could say, "Sin came into the world through one person; so, salvation came through one person for many." Today's Gospel needs to be read in the context of last week's Gospel in which Jesus sent the twelve disciples to proclaim the kingdom of heaven.

In between last week's reading and today's reading, Jesus has predicted that the disciples will face difficulties in their mission. Many people will not receive them well, even within the land of Israel. Even family members will turn away from the disciples because of the disciples' commitment to Jesus and the kingdom. Today's Gospel offers the disciples consolation against this difficult truth.

This section of Matthew's Gospel should be read in the context of Matthew's intended audience, a Jewish-Christian community. The Gospel alludes to the dangers and persecutions that this community has most likely already faced and will continue to face. To reassure this community, Matthew recalls for them the encouraging words of Jesus that we read today.

In this Gospel passage, Jesus might be understood as putting suffering in perspective. The disciples of Jesus are called upon to keep their focus on God. Those who can harm the body do not have ultimate power; God does. Still persecution and suffering cannot be avoided or prevented. But Jesus reassures his disciples that God knows and cares about what happens to his children.

We might not face the same type of persecution, but we do experience difficulties as we work to live a Christian life. Sometimes we let the opinions of others prevent us from doing what we know to be right. We need the reminder that what God thinks about us is more important. We are reassured by the promise that God cares for us and protects us.

May God bless all of us,
Fr. D
