Prayer for Priests

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments.

Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people.

Grant them the wisdom, understanding and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom.

Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry.

Help them to become instruments of your divine grace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest

AMEN

A Few Words From Fr. Dariusz

The First Reading and the Gospel are hospitality stories. Hospitality was a very essential part of life in the ancient world. It is still a highly regarded and a very necessary virtue.

We never know when God might surprise us and pay us a visit. Sometimes God's visits come with good ideas or with a strong awareness that we are not alone. Sometimes they come with a deep sense of peace or with a twinge of conscience. Sometimes they come when we meet a holy person who is in desperate need of our help. Of course, God comes to visit us as our life in this world reaches its end.

In the First Reading we see how, when three strangers suddenly appeared to Abraham. Abraham reacted with instinctive hospitality and how God rewarded his hospitality.

This sets the scene for Martha and Mary who welcome Jesus to their home. Martha got completely carried away by the details of hospitality, but Mary sat at his feet and listened to him. In today's Gospel Jesus came to the house of Martha and Mary. We see the contrast between Martha's activity and Mary's quiet devotion to the Lord. It is not that what Martha does is unimportant. It is just that Mary has chosen something even more important. Her priority is to listen to the word of Jesus.

The story of Martha and Mary can be seen as a parable in action. While the parable of the Good Samaritan stressed the importance of action, or practical love, in the life of a disciple, this story stresses the importance of contemplation. Both are necessary, and have to be integrated into the life of a Christian. Martha is the patron saint of waiters and waitresses.

After hearing a complaint from Martha, Jesus said that "There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her." Intentionally or unintentionally, Mary chose the better part, to listen to the Word of the Lord that enriches the soul.

In the Transfiguration event a voice from the cloud said, "this is my beloved Son, listen to him".

According to St. Paul, faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the Word of Christ. According to John, by hearing the Word of God, we are sanctified in the truth.

It sure appears as if Martha was hurt because she was left to do all the work by herself. But, according to the Words of Jesus, Martha was being distracted by many things. The work that Martha was doing was not necessary. Martha created her own work. It was not demanded of her. She could have sat alongside Mary in order to be enriched by the spiritual foods that Jesus was feeding to Mary. But, Martha chose to be a people pleaser. She was probably running right and left to prepare worldly food for Jesus as the Guest in the house. But Jesus was telling Martha that the Heavenly food is greater than the worldly food.

What Mary chose was spiritually beneficial to her now and forever. I hope that we in our busy lives, will find time to listen to the word of God and reflect on it.

May God Bless all of us,

Fr. Dariusz

Summer is fast approaching. Children will be home for summer vacation. While travel and BBQ's may be on our minds, many families are still struggling to keep food on their tables. Currently the pantry is running low on many items, staples like instant oatmeal, mac n cheese, green beans, peanut butter, jelly and cereal are all items that can be found at the Dollar store as well as toothpaste, shampoo and bar soap. If you take advantage of the BOGO or "5 or More discount" sales, please consider donating a few of those items.

Monetary donations are also gratefully accepted and always needed as these are used primarily to purchase fresh goods like milk, eggs, meat and bread. We are happy to do the shopping for you.

All donations should be brought to the Parish Office—Mon, Tues, Thur, Fri until 3:00pm. Checks should be made out to Our Lady of the Angels Food Pantry. Alternatively, you can donate directly through our Church Website www.loacc.org. select the Pantry fund using the Online Giving link. Donations can be one-time or even monthly.

Thank you for all of you who support the Pantry with food or monetary donations. We are very grateful for your generosity. Your contributions have been a tremendous help keeping the pantry supplied so that we can continue to help those less fortunate than ourselves

God of peace,

We pray for those who have served our nation and have laid down their lives to protect and defend our freedom.

We pray for those who have fought, whose spirits and bodies are scarred by war, whose nights are haunted by memories too painful for the light of day.

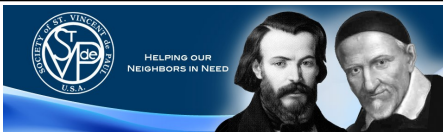

We pray for those who serve us now, especially for those in harm's way. Shield them from danger and bring them home.

Turn the hearts and minds of our leaders and our enemies to the work of justice and a harvest of peace.

Spare the poor, Lord, spare the poor! May the peace you left us, the peace you gave us, be the peace that sustains, the peace that saves us.

Christ Jesus, hear us!
Lord Jesus, hear our prayer! Amen.

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus affirms that to be a disciple we must also sit at his feet and listen to him. St. Vincent de Paul taught that it is only in prayer that we can give selfless loving service to those who are poor.

This week, please say a special prayer each day for the poor and forgotten in our parish.

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father, We thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. AMEN
