ASSUMPTION
August 15, 2025

A great sign appeared in the sky, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars.
 Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say:
 "Now have salvation and power come, and the Kingdom of our God and the authority of his Anointed One."

A Few Words From Fr. Dariusz

In today's First Reading, we read about the faith and patience of God's people during their days of slavery in Egypt. In secret, God's people offered sacrifices and lived as much as they could to fulfill the Divine Law in their lives. Their faith and perseverance were in the open that one day they would share in the glory of their ancestors and prophets.

Finally, God as He promised, He delivered the Children of Israel and destroyed their enemies. God was glorified by the Children of Israel for the miracles He had performed in their midst.

In the Second Reading, we read about the faith and patience of Abraham, his wife Sarah, Isaac and Jacob. Abraham obeyed God and left his homeland for the Promised Land. There he lived in tents throughout his entire life, always looking towards the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. While he died in faith, not having inherited the Divine promises, he knew that he was a stranger and foreigner on earth. In his heart, he desired a better country, that is, a heavenly one. And today in Heaven, he is rejoicing in his inheritance of the promises of God.

Abraham shined in faith and patience. He believed that though barren, his wife would conceive, even when she was too old. When asked to sacrifice his son Isaac, he believed that God could raise someone from the dead. Today's Gospel Reading tells us to be prepared to meet the master. We should be on alert all the time. The time of the master is not known to us. He might come anytime. Jesus also said that Kingdom of God had been created for us, for our eternal joy and peace in the continuous presence of God. The joy of the Lord and His angels was to see each and every one of us finding our way home to the spiritual Kingdom.

Jesus concluded His teaching by saying that from everyone to whom much has been given, much will be required; and from the one to whom much has been entrusted, even more will be demanded. In other words, some will have to give a greater accountability before God than others.

This week, let us take a few moments to review our personal faith and patience. Let us ask ourselves if we enjoy the fullness of these virtues.

May God bless all of us,
Fr. D

Prayer for Vocations God our Father, We thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. AMEN

God of peace,

We pray for those who have served our nation and have laid down their lives to protect and defend our freedom.

We pray for those who have fought, whose spirits and bodies are scarred by war, whose nights are haunted by memories too painful for the light of day.

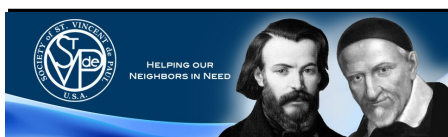

We pray for those who serve us now, especially for those in harm's way. Shield them from danger and bring them home.

Turn the hearts and minds of our leaders and our enemies to the work of justice and a harvest of peace.

Spare the poor, Lord, spare the poor! May the peace you left us, the peace you gave us, be the peace that sustains, the peace that saves us.

Christ Jesus, hear us!
Lord Jesus, hear our prayer! Amen.

Prayer for Priests

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments. Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to become instruments of your divine grace. We ask this through Jesus Christ who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest AMEN
