

Boulders Drop Rubber Game to Gateway

Lose Second Straight Series

June 15, 2025

Pomona, NY - The New York Boulders were shut out until the seventh inning and lost their rubber match against the Gateway Grizzlies, 6-1, on Father's Day at Clover Stadium.

LHP Garrett Coe (L {1-4} / 4 IP, 6 R, 5 BB, 2 K) gave up all six Gateway runs as the Grizz (19-13) scored in each of their first four frames, highlighted by a three-run HR off the bat of DH Mark Shallenberger in the top of the third and a solo shot from 3B Dale Thomas in the fourth.

The Boulders (15-16) were kept in check by 35-year-old RHP Zac Treece (W {1-1}), who shut them out on four hits until New York finally broke through in the bottom of the seventh.

A walk and single ended Treece's day, with reliever Alec Whaley giving up a bases loaded walk to RF Ryan McCoy for the Boulders' only run, as they'd leave the bases loaded and strand a total of 11 runners on the day, including eight in scoring position.

After an off-day Monday, the Boulders continue their season-high nine-game home stand against the Québec Capitales. First pitch Tuesday night is scheduled for 7:00pm EDT, with LHP Mason Olson making his first appearance since a complete-game, one-hit shutout at Sussex County on June 10th.
