June 27, 2025

Trois-Rivières, QC, CAN — In a game called after eight innings because of torrential rain, the Boulders extended their winning streak to three games with a wild 14-13 victory over Les Aigles at Stade Quillorama.

New York (20-21) jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the first inning on DH Fritz Genther's two-run single, but saw Trois-Rivières (16-27) even the score with single tallies in the second and third.

The Boulders erupted for seven runs in the fifth, highlighted by a two-run triple for SS Austin Dennis, RF Ryan McCoy's two-run homer – his team-high 10th of the year, and RBI singles for 3B Santino Rosso and 2B Kyle Hess that sandwiched LF Isaac Bellony's ribby double and put the visitors up 9-2.

Les Aigles closed within 9-4 in the sixth, then New York plated four in the seventh, capped by C Jason Agresti's two-run double.

Trois-Rivières answered with six runs in the bottom half to make it 13-10; the Boulders got an RBI single in the eighth from Dennis – his second in as many innings – for a 14-10 cushion; and les Aigles made one last push in the soaking rain, getting a three-run HR from 1B Omar Meregildo in the bottom of the eighth to account for the final margin.
