

Four Boulders Combine to Blank Jackals

NY Now 6-0 vs NJ in '25

July 10, 2025

Paterson, NJ — The New York Boulders continued their collective mastery over the New Jersey Jackals (19-32), completing a second split three-game series sweep of 2025 with Thursday night's 2-0 win at Hinchliffe Stadium.

It was a scoreless pitcher's duel for the first five innings between rookie righthanders, as the Jackals' Logan Waltz wound up with a no-decision in his first pro start, while the Boulders' Aidan Risse (W {3-2} / 6 IP, 0 R, 4 H, 3 BB, 5 K)) notched his third straight win.

New York (27-25) finally lit up the scoreboard with two runs in the top of the seventh against NJ's Colt Webb (L {1-1}), loading the bases with one out before 3B Fritz Genther lifted a sacrifice fly to center field, plating SS Austin Dennis and LF Isaac Bellony followed with an RBI single to chase C Jason Agresti home from second.

RHP's Scott Harper and Jordy Luciano followed Risse with a hitless inning apiece before Tyler Vail worked into and out of a bases loaded, no-out jam in the bottom of the ninth to nail down his ninth save of the year.

Also of note:

* RF Ryan McCoy reached base for the Frontier League season-high 39th straight game and extended his hitting streak to 24 games in a row, going 2-for-4 with two singles and a walk

* Agresti's franchise record 27-game hitting streak came to end as he went 0-for-4 with an intentional walk

* Dennis (3-for-4) extended his hitting streak to nine games (25-of-39 {.641}), including eight with multiple hits

The Boulders head into the All-Star Break by paying their first ever visit to Kinston, North Carolina, for a three-game series with the Down East Bird Dawgs. First pitch tomorrow (Friday) night is scheduled for 7:00pm EDT.
