Bats Silenced in 2-1 Loss

FLORENCE, KY - The Florence Y'alls, presented by Towne Properties, lost another low-scoring game to the Wild Things by a final score of 2-1.

Matt Fernandez got the ball for his third start of the season looking for revenge against the same team that tagged him for 12 runs in his last start. While Fernandez looked improved tossing five innings and allowing just one run, he was still dealt his third loss of the season, not getting his offensive support.

Will Carsten looked great once again, pitching two shutout innings, allowing just two hits and four strikeouts. Zane Robbins finished the game with a clean one-inning relief appearance, keeping it a 2-1 ballgame to at least give Florence a chance in the ninth.

The offense was lackluster today stranding seven on base with five in scoring position. The Y'alls only saw one baserunner from the fifth inning through the eighth. Dalton Davis and Craig Massey had multi-hit performances, while TJ Reeves provided the lone RBI single in the third.

The Y'alls will once again head for a rubber match tomorrow vs the Wild Things, still trying to win their first series of the season. RHP Shaun Gamelin toes the rubber for Florence and the starter for Washington is still TBA. First pitch is set for 5:35 PM ET.
