

AUGUSTA, N.J. - The New Jersey Jackals (4-10) fell to the Sussex County Miners (11-5) 25-6 on Sunday. The 25 runs are the most scored by the Miners is a single-game record for the franchise that is celebrating it's tenth anniversary. Every Miners' hitter reached base multiple times in the win.

The Miners raced out to a 5-0 lead after the second inning. In the third, New Jersey found the scoreboard off of Ryan Ford's RBI-groundout that plated Luis Acevedo, shrinking the margin to 5-1.

Trailing 7-1 in the top of the fifth inning, Miguel Gomez trimmed the deficit to four with a two-RBI double that scored Ford and Acevedo. However, Sussex County answered by adding on seven runs in the fifth frame and eleven in the sixth, ballooning the lead to 25-6. In the ninth inning, the Jackals struck last when Arbert Cipion scored on a wild pitch. Cipion closed the day a triple shy of the cycle.

Rob Hensey (W 1-0) earned the win after tossing five innings, allowing three runs while striking out five. Nick Hohenstein (L 0-2) took the loss after only lasting an inning and giving up five runs. The middle four Jackals relievers combined to allow 20 runs over the next five innings. Nicholas Trabacchi shut down the Sussex County offense, tossing two shutout frames in the seventh and eighth with four strikeouts.

The Jackals try to bounce back from the series sweep on Tuesday at home against the Ottawa Titans. First pitch is scheduled for 11:05 A.M. ET.
