

QUEBEC, Q.C. - The New Jersey Jackals (7-11) fell to the Quebec Capitales (15-4) 2-0 on Friday night.

Quebec struck first in the third inning when Emiles Boies grounded out to score Joshwan Wright. In the fourth, Justin Gideon hit a solo home run to double the lead to 2-0.

Quebec starter Braeden Allemann (W, 2-0) stymied the New Jersey offense, tossing 6.2 innings with 11 strikeouts and allowing just two baserunners. The Jackals were able to create a few scoring opportunities late in the game, including runners on second and third with two outs in the eighth, but Harold Cortijo (S, 5) kept the Jackals off the board when he struck out Arbert Cipion.

Jalon Long (L, 0-3) tossed seven innings for the Jackals, allowing two runs with five strikeouts. He was relieved by Frankie Guliano who threw a shutout in the eighth with two strikeouts.

The Jackals continue their series with Quebec tomorrow night. First pitch is scheduled for 7:05 p.m. ET
