

QUEBEC, Q.C. - The New Jersey Jackals (7-13) fell to the Quebec Capitales (17-4) in two games yesterday, 8-2 and 5-1.

Sunday's action picked up a suspended game from Saturday night. On Saturday, Quebec raced out to a 2-0 advantage on an Emiles Boies two-RBI double. The game got suspended in the middle of the third inning.

After the resumption on Sunday afternoon, Quebec continued their offensive barrage in the third inning when Christian Inoa singled in Justin Gideon. The next hitter, Will Riley singled and a Jackals' error brought in Marc-Antoine Lebreux. Inoa later scored on an error, ballooning the Capitales lead to 5-0.

The Jackals plated their lone run in the top of the fifth on a Trevor Sheehan RBI-groundout that scored Jankel Ortiz.

Quebec replied with a run in the bottom half of the fifth and added on two more runs in the eighth. Sheehan knocked another RBI-groundout in the ninth, also scoring Ortiz, shrinking the margin to 8-2.

Brodie Cooper-Vassalakis (W, 2-0) picked up the win after tossing 2.0 innings in relief and allowing one run with three strikeouts. Alex Barker (L, 1-2) took the loss after tossing 2.0 innings, conceding two runs with two strikeouts.

In the series finale, The Jackals struck first on a Chris Reeder double that scored Arbert Cipion in the second inning. Quebec evened the score in the bottom of the third when Arturo De Freitas scored on a wild pitch. A few pitches later, Will Riley singled to score Pier Olivier Boucher. Leading 2-1, They piled on with three runs in the fourth.

Kevin Zarnoch (L, 0-1) took the loss after throwing 3.2 innings, allowing four runs with four strikeouts. Ty Buckner (W, 4-1) earned the win after throwing five innings, allowing one run with eight strikeouts.

The Jackals return to the Tri-State area for a Tuesday matinee against the New York Boulders. First pitch from Pomona is scheduled for 10:30 a.m. ET.
