

POMONA, N.Y. - The New Jersey Jackals (7-14) fell to the New York Boulders (9-11) 15-6 on Tuesday afternoon.

The Jackals struck first in the opening inning off of a Miguel Gomez RBI-groundout that plated Luis Acevedo.

Trailing 1-0 entering the third, the Boulders evened the score when Austin Dennis hit a ground-rule double that brought in Braydon Dolbashian. Later in the inning, Christian Ficca drove in Ryan Vogel, increasing the lead to 3-1.

Former Jackals' shortstop Fritz Genther embarked on a career day in the fourth inning with a solo home run, growing the advantage to 4-1. He added on a grand slam in the next inning as a part of an eight run New York fifth frame and after the Jackals clawed two runs across on an Arbert Cipion home run, Genther replied with a three-run blast in the sixth that put the Boulders up 15-3. He closed the day 3-5 with eight RBI's and three runs scored.

The Jackals scored three unanswered to end the game. Patrick Sanchez singled in Luis Acevedo in the seventh, trimming the margin to 15-4. In the ninth, the Jackals took advantage of some early walks. Ryan Ford and Trevor Sheehan both walked with the bases loaded, driving in Acevedo and Sanchez.

Former Jackals reliever Mike DeSanti entered with the bases loaded and zero outs in the ninth and mopped up the frame, striking out two and allowing no runs. Jackals catcher Jimmy Costin went 2-4 with a walk in the loss against his former team.

Joe Joe Rodriguez (L, 2-3) took the loss after allowing six runs in 4.1 innings. Mason Olson (W, 2-0) earned the win, tossing six innings, conceding three runs with six strikeouts.

The Jackals continue their series with the Boulders tomorrow morning. First pitch from Pomona is scheduled for 10:30 a.m. ET.
