Y'alls Drowned on Opening Day

FLORENCE, KY - The Florence Y'alls, presented by Towne Properties, dropped their Opening Day game to the Mississippi Mud Monsters 13-2 in a lopsided affair. Thursday night marked the Inaugural game for the Mississippi Mud Monsters and the first-ever Frontier League Game held at Trustmark Park.

Shaun Gamelin received the Opening Day nod on the bump for Florence and was handed the loss in his Y'alls debut. Gamelin allowed an unearned run in the first before striking out four in a row and a total of five punchouts in four innings pitched. The Mud Monsters rattled off four hits in the fourth putting across two more runs and chased Gamelin from the game down 3-1.

Florence got on the board with an RBI groundout from Zade Richardson to score Stephen Hrus-tich in the top of the second inning. The Y'alls bats were stifled all game and only received their first hit of the night in the fifth inning from Craig Massey.

The game blew open when the Mud Monsters placed seven runs, three earned, on Florence's southpaw, Eli Majick, in his Y'alls debut. The Cincinnati Native didn't get any help in the field with two errors and a couple of bloop singles, but was able to escape more damage with an in-ning-ending double play.

The Y'alls finally got back on the board in the eighth after a TJ Reeves RBI triple pushed across Blaze O'Saben to make it 10-2. Florence finished the game with just three hits in an unfortunate night for the Number One offense in 2024 which returned six of nine starters.

Florence returns for game two of the three-game series against the Mud Monsters on Friday Night. The Y'alls will send RHP Matt Fernandez to the mound with Mississippi's starter currently TBD. First pitch is set for 6:30 CT and 7:30 ET.

The Florence Y'alls are Northern Kentucky's Professional baseball team, and are proud members of the independent Frontier League, an MLB Partner League.
