

BOOMERS WIN GAME 2 AS ROX SLIDE CONTINUES

Schaumburg, IL – The Brockton Rox dropped their seventh straight game Saturday night, falling to the Schaumburg Boomers, 10–6, in a back-and-forth contest at Wintrust Field.

Left-hander Omar Melendez got the start for Brockton in his second professional outing, but the Boomers gave him a tougher welcome this time around. Melendez lasted 4.2 innings, allowing five runs on seven hits.

The Rox offense struggled to keep up with the Schaumburg bats early, remaining scoreless until the fifth inning while trailing 2–0.

With two on and two out, Nick Marola took advantage of a Schaumburg error to bring home Derek Bender and JR DiSarcina, tying the game at 2–2.

But the Boomers responded quickly in the bottom of the frame. Michael Gould, one of the league's hottest hitters, launched a three-run homer to put Schaumburg back on top, 5–2.

Brockton showed some resilience in the top of the sixth. DiSarcina doubled to drive in Bender, Trey Ciulla-Hall lifted a sac fly to score Evan Giordano, and Marola capped the rally with an RBI single to tie the game at 5–5.

The Boomers took the lead for good in the bottom of the sixth with an RBI walk. Then came the decisive blow in the seventh inning, when Banks Tolley scored on a balk, Bren Spillane crossed on a wild pitch, and Christian Fedko added a two-run double to extend the lead to 10–6.

That would be all for the scoring, as the Schaumburg bullpen silenced the Rox the rest of the way and shut the door on any potential comeback.

The suspended Game 1 will resume at 12:55 PM on July 13, with the score tied at 6–6. A seven-inning Game 3 will follow immediately afterward.
