

OTTAWA, ON. - The New Jersey Jackals (3-6) fell to the Ottawa Titans (4-5) 7-6 in sudden death.

Ottawa raced out to a 3-0 advantage after the third inning. Aaron Casillas scored on a wild pitch in the second. The next frame, Taylor Wright doubled in AJ Wright and Jo Oyama drove in Taylor Wright on a sacrifice fly.

The Jackals broke up a no-hit bid by Ottawa starter Grant Larson (ND) in the sixth on a Trevor Sheehan RBI-single that scored Bryson Parks. Later in the inning, Jankel Ortiz tied the game with a two-RBI single, scoring Sheehan and Ryan Ford.

The Jackals took the lead in the eighth when Arbert Cipion drove in Sheehan off of former Jackals closer Dazon Cole (ND). Ortiz notched his third RBI of the day with a sacrifice fly to increase the lead to 5-0.

Ottawa got both runs back in the bottom half on a Michael Fuhrman single and a Jackie Urbaez single. Both Brett Garcia (W, 1-0) and Nicholas Trabacchi (ND) stood tall in the ninth, sending the game to extra innings.

In the tenth, both teams brought in their automatic runners. Arbert Cipion grounded out to plate Sheehan while Casillas hit a sacrifice fly to score Lamar Briggs. In sudden death, Ottawa chose defense and Garcia sent the Jackals down in order.

The Jackals resume their series against the Titans tomorrow morning. First pitch is scheduled for 11:00 a.m. ET.
