

PATERSON, N.J. The New Jersey Jackals (19-34) fell to the Sussex County Miners (34-21) 6-3.

Gabriel Maciel started the scoring for the Miners with a two-run home run in the top of the first, plating Hunter D'Amato. The Jackals replied in the home first on a Sebastian Mueller single that scored Bryson Parks.

Down 2-1 in the bottom of the fourth, Miguel Gomez launched his fourth home run of the year, also driving in Sam Angelo, giving New Jersey a 3-2 lead.

In the top of the fifth, Jordan Smith knocked a two-RBI single, bringing in Gionti Turner and Maciel, reclaiming the lead at 4-3. Sussex County added one in the seventh on a Dom Johnson single, scoring Smith and one in the ninth when Abdel Guadalupe singled in Alec Sayre.

Mike Reagan (W, 5-3) earned the win, tossing six innings, allowing three runs with four strikeouts. Nick Timpanelli (L, 0-2) took the loss, tossing seven innings, conceding five runs with three strikeouts. Tyler Luneke (S, 4) booked the save, allowing one walk with two strikeouts in the ninth inning.

The Jackals conclude their series with the Miners tomorrow afternoon in a twin-bill. First pitch is scheduled for 2:05 p.m. ET
