

POMONA, N.Y. - The New Jersey Jackals (7-15) fell to the New York Boulders (10-11) 6-5 in ten innings.

The Boulders struck first in the opening inning on two straight doubles from Austin Dennis and Ryan McCoy to jump out to a 1-0 lead.

The Jackals answered in the third when Ryan Ford knocked his 21st and 22nd RBIs with a single that scored Richel Del Rosario and Bryson Parks.

Leading 2-1 in the fifth with Luis Acevedo on first base, Ford added on with a two-run homerun, increasing the lead to 4-1. However, the Boulders tallied three unanswered runs in the seventh and eighth innings on two home runs. Isaac Bellony nailed a solo shot in the seventh and Ryan McCoy cleared the deepest part of the yard to even the score at 4-4.

Zeroes on both sides in the ninth forced extra innings. In the top of the tenth, New Jersey scored the automatic runner, Chris Reeder on a sacrifice fly from Parks. Trailing 6-5 in the bottom half, Alfredo Marte singled in Austin Dennis, evening the score at 5-5. Two batters later, Jason Agresti walked off when he grounded a single up the middle with the infield in to score McCoy.

Jackals starter Francis Ferguson (ND) lasted seven innings and allowed two runs with three strikeouts. Jeff Heinrich came on in relief and conceded two runs in 0.2 innings of work. Joe Testa (L, 0-1) tossed the remaining 1.2 frames, allowing two runs with three strikeouts.

The Jackals conclude their three-game set with the Boulders tomorrow night as the series flips to Paterson. First pitch is scheduled for 6:35 p.m. ET.
