

Resources for Divorced and Separated Ministry

Abuse shelters and hotlines

National Domestic Violence Hotline

1-800-799-SAFE (1-800-799-7233) www.ndvh.org

(website has recommendations for creating safety plans)

Georgia Coalition Against Domestic Violence (GCADV) www.gcadv.org

Georgia hotline - (404) 209-0280 or 1-800-334-2836

liveSAFE 24-hour crisis line – 770-427-3390

City of Refuge – 404-952-1201

Archdiocese of Atlanta Abuse Hotline – 888-437-0764

Domestic Violence Spanish Hotline – 404-413-6348

Partnership Against Domestic Violence (PADV) www.padv.org

(website has recommendations for creating safety plans)

Domestic Violence Awareness Project <http://www.nrcdv.org/dvam/>

“Love Is Respect” hotline and website with special information for teenagers who may be in abusive dating relationships or for family and friends who want to help them 1-866-331-9474 or www.loveisrespect.org

U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops’ web site www.foryourmarriage.org

Also see resources attached and housing below

Anonymous hotlines for addictions/abuses –

See attached resource list – Emergency Assistance Organizations

Marijuana Anonymous (for both users and families) -

<https://www.marijuana-anonymous.org/meetings/in-person/us/ga>

Child Counseling/psychological help

See attached resources

Children of divorce program: Divorce Care for Children –

<https://www.dc4k.org/>

Childcare assistance

See attached resources

<http://st-ann.org/resources-for-assistance/childcare-assistance>

Cobb County Resources (wide range)

See attached resource from Marietta Housing Authority website

Counseling

See resources attached

Catholic Charities – 770-429-2369 x1

Rowell United Methodist Church <https://www.rumc.com/outreach/care-support-group/>

SUPPORT THROUGH ALL LIFE'S CHALLENGES

For general questions, please contact Toni Fagan at 770.261.1781.

RUMC COUNSELING CENTER

Life is full of ups and downs, challenges and change. The RUMC Counseling Center's independent practitioners are here to help. Fee-based therapy sessions are available for individuals, couples and families of the Roswell community. To schedule, please reach out to an individual therapist.

Types of support groups: grief, divorce, Parkinson's, caregivers, survivors of suicide

Addiction 12-step groups: alcohol (AA), women's alcohol (Women's AA), adult children of alcoholics, families of alcoholics (Al-ANON), shoplifters, crystal meth, chronic pain, emotions, marijuana, narcotics, over eaters, sexaholics, families of sexaholics, sex & love addiction.

Divorce support groups

Catholic Church of St. Ann Divorced and Separated Support Group

770-552-6400 ext. 6018

Divorce Care – 13 wk Christian Based;

<https://www.divorcecare.org/countries/us/states/ga/cities/roswell>

Two local locations: Roswell United Methodist Church and Fellowship Bible Church (Roswell)

Employment

See St. Ann Career Quest below

See attached resources

<http://st-ann.org/resources-for-assistance/job-search>

Financial advice/budgeting

See attached resources

<http://st-ann.org/resources-for-assistance/budgeting-your-income>

Housing

See attached resources

<http://st-ann.org/resources-for-assistance/housing-information>

Legal help

See attached resources

www.legal-aid-service.com

www.GeorgiaLegalAid.org

<http://st-ann.org/resources-for-assistance/legal-assistance>

Low income help

See attached resources

St. Vincent de Paul Society – 770-552-6400 ext. 6105 <http://st-ann.org/resources-for-assistance/where-to-begin-when-you-need-help>

Parenting and family resources

24/7 national hotlines staffed by professional counselors to help with solutions to parenting problems, for parents who are worried they may harm their child, and for children who are fearful of being harmed by a family member or caretaker. Translation service is available. Free articles on websites available to learn about parenting skills and child abuse prevention.

The Boys Town National Hotline: 800-448-3000

www.boystown.org/national-hotline

Childhelp USA, National Child Abuse Hotline: 1-800-422-4453

www.childhelp.org

Personal safety

Body guards/companions - The Defender Group, Bruce Koshkin – 770-317-9900

St. Ann church contact numbers – main number 770-552-6400

Career Quest – serves the unemployed and workers at risk; goal is to increase self-perspective; knowledge of the job market and development of skills required to secure a job; meets each Tuesday from 6:30 – 8 pm; no charge; contact careerquestga@gmail.com or 770-552-6400 extension 6104

Divorced and Separate Ministry Facilitator - Cecilia Griesenauer (contact by calling Pastoral Care)

OWN (One is a Whole Number) – an adult singles ministry that provides service, spiritual, and social events with other single adults. OWN membership includes those never married, divorced, and widowed; contact Carol Jares own.st.anns@gmail.com or 770-841-3699

Priest office numbers: 770-552-6400

Fr. Ray ext. 6002, Fr. Andrews ext. 6004; Fr. Gabe – call receptionist

Pastoral Care:

Director: Linda Walsh, RN – ext. 6019; Coordinator:

Spiritual Director – One-on-one companioning to facilitate a deepening relationship with God

Carol Busche 770-846-6167 or Anne Birth Annembirth@gmail.com

Help for those for whom English is a second language:

International Women's House 24 Hour Hotline: 770-413-5557

Tapestri, Inc.: 404-299-2185 or 1-866-562-2873 www.tapestri.org

Caminar Latino 404-413-6348 <http://www.caminarlatino.org>

La Línea Nacional sobre Violencia Doméstica: 1-800-799-7233

Good Shepherd Services (Vietnamese, Mandarin, Cantonese): 770-455-9379;

Clayton and South: 404-366-8677