

Win Up To $25k in Prizes by Sharing Your Most Memorable Travel Experiences

An unprecedented $25K in cash and prizes is up for grabs with the launch of a new travel website – Travel Gateway.

Airport Development Group (ADG) is inviting photographers and videographers, amateur or professional, to share their most memorable travel experiences in the NT and Kimberley for their chance to win part of a $25k cash and travel voucher prize pool.

The 6 week competition, open from 12.01am Wednesday 16 June, is being run to launch ADG's new website, Travel Gateway, which will showcase unique destinations and inspire year-round travel to the NT and Kimberley.

Each week for 5 weeks the best image or video will be awarded $1,000. In week 6 an overall winner will be chosen and receive a massive $10,000 cash, and 1 runner up of $5,000 in travel vouchers.

An additional $5,000 in travel vouchers will be awarded to the NT News People's Choice and announced Friday August 13.

The competition opens at 12:01am Wednesday 16 June and is open to all Australian residents. Pictures and videos must be of travel experiences in the NT or Kimberley.

To enter share photos and videos on Facebook or Instagram, with the hashtag #travelgatewayau

ADG CEO Tony Edmondstone said

"As a Darwin-based organisation we are proud to be investing in a website that encourages travel to the NT and Kimberley."

"We know how special these regions are and our aim in launching this Travel Gateway website is to position the Territory and Kimberley as year-round destinations for unique experiences."

"There are so many memorable places to go and fascinating things to see in these regions and we encourage entries to reflect that."

"In addition to cash and travel winners of the competition will have their pictures and videos showcased on the Travel Gateway website."

The Travel Gateway website is active and for more information on how to enter, terms and conditions and for inspiration go to – travelgateway.com.au
