Airport Development Group, Darwin Airport Resorts and China Southern Airlines Unit to Celebrate Chinese New Year with the Chung Wah Society

Airport Development Group, together with Darwin Airport Resorts and China Southern Airlines, was proud to support the Chung Wah Society Chinese New Year Banquet held on Saturday 14 February, celebrating the Year of the Fire Horse.

The evening brought together more than 300 guests for a vibrant celebration of culture, community, and tradition. The banquet was filled with spectacular dance performances, colour, and ceremony, reflecting the rich heritage of the Chinese community in the Northern Territory.

Airport Development Group's Head of Aviation Development, Allan Woo, said partnerships with cultural organisations such as Chung Wah Society play an important role in strengthening community ties across the Territory.

"We are incredibly proud to partner with the Chung Wah Society in celebrating Chinese New Year. Cultural organisations such as Chung Wah Society play a vital role in preserving traditions and bringing our community together," Mr Woo said.

"The Chinese community has made an extraordinary contribution to the social, cultural, and economic fabric of the Northern Territory. Events like this not only honour that legacy but also strengthen the connections that make our Territory such a vibrant and inclusive place to live and visit."

Airport Development Group and its partners congratulate the Chung Wah Society on delivering an exceptional evening and reaffirmed their commitment to supporting this important cultural celebration throughout the Year of the Fire Horse.
