Airport Development Group Community Grants Program Round 4 Now Open

Airport Development Group (ADG) is pleased to announce that applications are now open for Round 4 of the ADG Community Grants Program, supporting initiatives that strengthen communities.

The ADG Community Grants Program provides funding to not-for-profit organisations, community groups, schools, and sporting clubs for projects and activities that deliver social, cultural, environmental, and economic benefits to the regions surrounding Darwin International, Alice Springs, and Tennant Creek airports.

ADG Executive General Manager, People, Culture and Community, Sandra de Kock said the program reflects ADG's commitment to supporting vibrant and resilient communities throughout the Territory.

"We are proud to continue investing in initiatives that bring people together, enhance local wellbeing, and create positive, lasting outcomes for those living in the Northern Territory," Ms de Kock said.

"The ADG Community Grants are about recognising the incredible work happening at the grassroots level and helping those efforts grow."

Eligibility:

Applications are open to Northern Territory based community organisations and groups that can demonstrate a tangible benefit to the local community.

Funding can support initiatives in areas such as:

- Community wellbeing and inclusion
- Environmental sustainability
- Education and youth development
- Arts, culture, and heritage
- Sport and recreation

How to Apply:

To apply, visit Community Grants | Airport Development Group | NT and complete the online application form.

Applications for Round 4 close Thursday, 18 December 2025.
