NEWSLETTER

September 2026

Welcome to the September edition of Oakfield Community newsletter.

Inside you'll find snapshots of the many activities, events, outings, and everyday moments that have brought joy, built confidence, and strengthened friendships across our supported living community.

We hope these images give you a glimpse into the inclusive and welcoming community that we all work together to create every day.

Please join us in welcoming the newest members of the team that have joined us here at Oakfield in September 2026

Oakfield Community's
EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH
Mirjeta Gjjanj

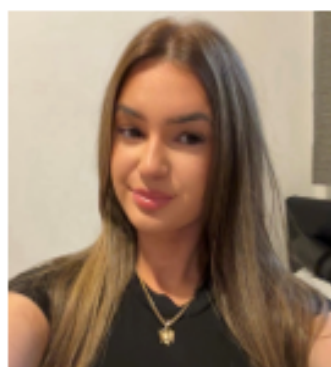

Mirjeta has been nominated as Employee of the Month in recognition of her consistently positive contribution to the team and the high standard of support she provides to individuals.

Mirjeta demonstrates excellent communication skills and always approaches her work in a professional, respectful and compassionate manner. She maintains a strong person-centred approach, ensuring that the needs, wishes and preferences of the individuals are at the heart of the support she provides.

She is a reliable and supportive team player who works well with colleagues and contributes to a positive working environment. Mirjeta makes sure that tasks and responsibilities are shared fairly within the team and is always willing to support others when needed. She communicates effectively with colleagues and ensures that important information is shared appropriately to maintain continuity of care.

Mirjeta consistently demonstrates professionalism in her work and sets a positive example to those around her. She shows commitment to her role, takes pride in providing good-quality support and treats both individuals and colleagues with dignity and respect.

Her positive attitude, teamwork, communication, and person-centred approach have been greatly appreciated, and she is a very deserving recipient of Employee of the Month.

Oakfield Community's

Noah Chambers

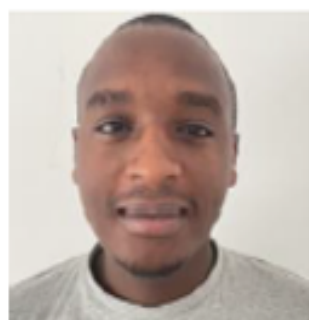

Noah has been nominated as Employee of the Month in recognition of his consistently positive attitude, person-centred approach and the ongoing support he provides to both the individuals and his colleagues.

Noah always puts the needs, wishes and preferences of the individuals at the heart of the support he provides. He carries out his role with kindness, patience and respect, ensuring that individuals feel valued, listened to and supported. He consistently demonstrates a professional approach and takes pride in providing good-quality care.

Noah is a reliable and supportive team player who is always willing to help his colleagues when needed. He works well as part of the team, communicates effectively and is happy to support others with tasks and responsibilities. His willingness to step in and help contributes to a positive and supportive working environment.

Noah's positive attitude and approachable nature make him a valued member of the team. He consistently shows commitment to his role and demonstrates a genuine willingness to support both individuals and colleagues.

His positivity, reliability, teamwork, dedication and person-centred approach make Noah a very deserving recipient of Employee of the Month.

Could you be our next Trustee?

Oakfield is looking for new Trustees to join our dynamic Board and help shape our future.

We would particularly love to hear from people with experience or knowledge of:

Housing
Safeguarding
Health and Safety
Governance
Supported living
Health and social care

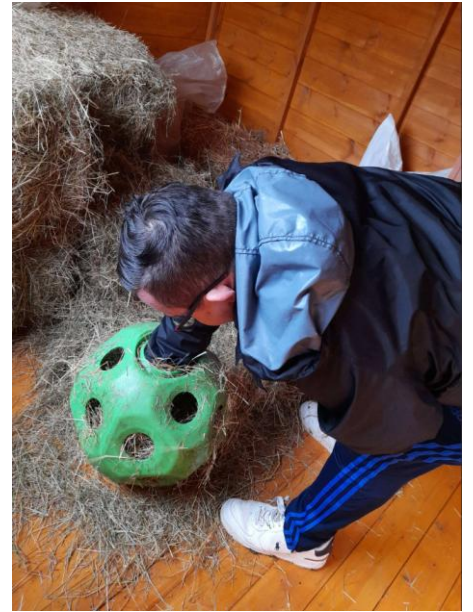

We would also love to hear from people who have a connection to Oakfield and understand what we do.

You don't need to be an expert in everything or previous experience of being a trustee, your experience, knowledge and perspective could make a real difference.

Interested in finding out more?

Please get in touch with us for an informal chat and more information about becoming an Oakfield Trustee.

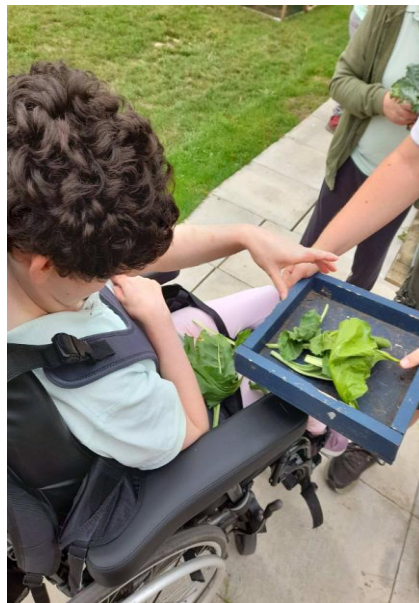

Please take a look at what the people we support have been getting up to in September, starting off with looking after some of our lovely animals! 🐰 🐴

Making food and harvesting the vegetables grown here at Seed To Plate

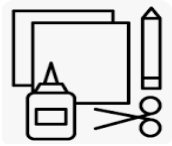

The people we support enjoying their seed to plate sessions

Forest School

Arts, crafts, bits and bobs

Days out and about, to the park and Rushden lakes

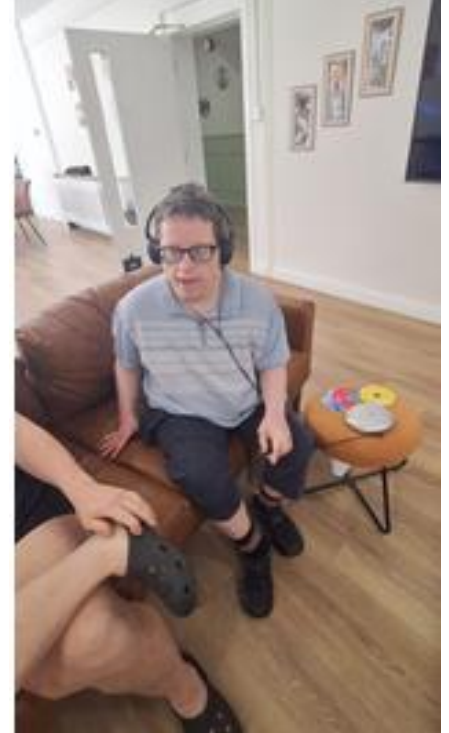

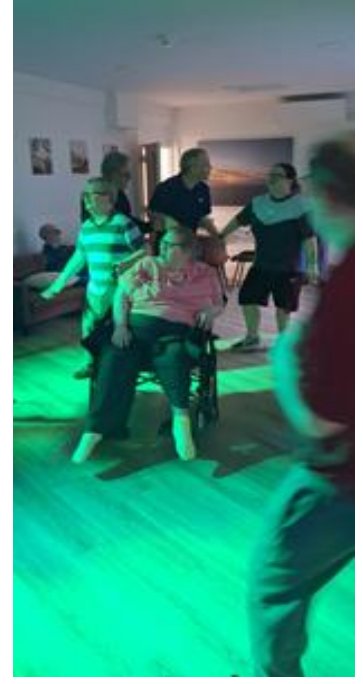

A trip to Wickstead Park

Its party time! Some of the people we support enjoy the disco!

And finally, a few photos completing housework and food prep!

Oakfield's Pop-up Charity Shop

Our Pop-up Charity shop is open every Wednesday and Friday from 10am-4pm.

Please come down and have a browse at our bargains. 100% of donations go directly to Oakfield Charity.

Our weatherproof seating area "The Shack" is a great place to come and enjoy a winter warmer hot drink and cake, or soup and a roll.

The poster is a colorful flyer for Oakfield's Pop-up Charity Shop. It features a green header with the shop's name in large blue letters. Below the header are three circular images: a tent with clothes, a garden path, and a building labeled 'THE SHACK'. A speech bubble next to the building says 'Weatherproof seating area "The Shack" is now open!'. The main body is dark blue with yellow accents. It includes a 'What's on offer?' section with a list of items, a 'Where?' section with the address, a 'When?' section with the opening hours, and a 'Refreshments available!' section with an image of a cup of soup. At the bottom, there is a banner stating '100% of donations go directly to Oakfield Charity' and the contact information for Oakfield Community.
