Additional Information

We are excited to welcome students to the Ann Roberts RAD Ballet Winter Vacation School. This program is designed to provide an intensive training experience for Vocational grades, helping students to refine their skills and prepare for exams.

The cost of the program is inclusive of five classes across all grades, providing excellent value for a comprehensive training experience. Payments are to be made to the Ann Roberts School of Dance, and we kindly ask that all transactions be referenced with the student's name to ensure accurate processing.

Proper grooming is essential for both girls and boys to maintain a professional appearance and ensure comfort during classes.
