

POTTED PLANTS

Elias Hernandez

Monterrey, N.L., Mexico

This is my carnivorous plant at the office in Monterrey.

Davon Dunn

Winder, GA

Strawberries

Nicole Hinkle

Wilmington, DE

A few of my office plants!

Cesar Martinez

Houston, TX

Indoor plants

Tracy Beningo

Milford, CT

My Plant Stand at Work with Friends; my plants at home

Daniel Dokken

Edmonton, AB, Canada

Our Boston fern named Sideshow Bob

Mauricio Garcia

Tijuana, B.C., Mexico

The spider plant is a lovely plant, suitable for hanging or placing on a surface, it will add a special touch to any space and is also very easy to care for.

Bob Dove

McCullough Industries

White Butterfly Syngonium: a gift when we lost our beloved "Sockie Boy" (cat)

Caroline Shiner

Olympic Steel Corporate

House plant that started from a clipping

Katelyn

Kansas City, MO

*Years in stainless taught me one thing:
quality growth takes time*

Nancy Waselich

Olympic Steel Corporate

Shrimp tree; winter jungle

FLOWERS

Natasha Lee

Bettendorf, IA

This is one of the beautiful iris that grow in my backyard every year. No matter what, they grow, very resilient!

Alexander Rodriguez

Buford, GA

Roses and Flowers

Priyanka Yadav

Bedford Heights, OH

First sunflower blooming in my garden this spring.

Dalila Gonzalez

Tijuana, B.C., Mexico

Yellow-orange rose

Kim Liedman

Coon Rapids, MN

This is my 100-year-old Christmas cactus in bloom. It belonged to my Grandpa's mom, Cecelia.

Huy Phan

Wilmington, DE

Front yard flowers

James Miller

Chambersburg, PA

Thriving rose bush planted last summer, just starting to bloom.

But who is that little fella watching all of this up on the railing? =)

Wendy Gunter

Winder, GA

Patriotic petunias!

Vickie Phillips

Hartwell, GA

I just love pretty flowers – these are blooming beautifully

Rachel Gonzales

Downers Grove, IL

These flowers were purchased as an art project from my son's school when he was four years old because he drew on the original pot. It has died down to a twig once and keeps blooming every year. I've had this plant for 16 years now 🥰

Rebecca Kelley

Winder, GA

Flower basket on side of garage

Rosandra Dagley

Dallas, TX

*Nasturtium grown from seed:
2026 Dagley garden.*

Michelle McCabe

Brampton, ON, Canada

My favourite spring blooms are my purple irises in my front garden.

Katrina Magee

Brampton, ON, Canada

Monarch butterfly resting on a native purple coneflower in our garden, grown from seed.

Amber Dennison

Southern Tool Steel

Flower bed and lilies

Kimberly Witkowski

Cleveland, OH

My favorite clematis yet this season!

Wayne Tollett

Mobile, AL

Passion flower; Bee on a zinnia

Jackie Ritter

Highland Hilld, OH

First spring blooms

Seanna Walker

Chambersburg, PA

Front garden

Cherie Rangel

Schaumburg, IL

Fresh flowers grown from seed starting in February 2026

Geethu Thomas

Brampton, ON, Canada

This is my front garden on both sides.

We have many varieties of flowers and plants, including roses, peonies, hosta, black-eyed Susans, petunias, dahlias, phlox, geraniums, balloon flowers etc. All plants have just started blooming. It will be fully bloomed in a week or more.

Audrey Saefke

Coon Rapids, MN

Peonies and a colorful garden harvest!

Michele Dagata

Front yard

Jennifer Jackson

Brampton, ON, Canada

Pink peony

FRUIT, VEGGIE & HERB GARDENS

Xaya Sihachack

Buford, GA

*Garden with pepper, tomatoes
green onions, strawberry,
cucumber and bell pepper*

Kailee Bottos

Burns Harbor, IL

My biggest raised garden bed is planted with bell peppers, banana peppers, carrots, basil, green beans and tomatoes.

My white potted plants have marigolds and wildflower assortments, and the red hanging planter has strawberries.

My tan planter in the center has more basil. Most plants pictured were grown from seeds and a few from tiny sprouts.

My smaller raised bed contains two strawberry plants, one blueberry bush starter and cilantro in between each plant.

There is a tomato plant in the gray pot and carrots in the black pot. All these plants have been grown from seeds.

BUFFALO NY GARDEN

Denise Carey

Lancaster, NY

My Buffalo, NY garden

Brian O'dell

Kentucky

Just a small garden, but it feeds me and my wife.

Taylor Coffey

Mt Sterling, KY

These are my raised beds for vegetables as well as my blueberry plants on the left. Secondary garden for root vegetables in the background.

Angie Gomez

Fresno, CA

My three-year-old and I decided to take a chance at growing pumpkins for Halloween this year! This is the current state of our little pumpkin patch! We hope to have enough to give our pumpkins to the neighborhood :)

Juan Granja

Olympic Steel

Tomatoes 🍅 hot peppers 🌶️ cilantro

Sophie Lafleur

Vaudreuil, QC, Canada

*My vegetable garden that I do every year:
starting from seeds all the way up and extra veggies come to our office for people who want some.*

Adriana Andujar

Los Angeles, CA

Photo of me with the zucchini I grew myself. Brought it in to show my co-workers!

Ryan Maksimik

Schaumburg, IL

Our little family garden: tomatoes, cucumber, kale, zucchini.

Tony Dominic

Olympic Steel Corporate

Chives!!

Pauline Thavisay

Hudson Tool Steel

Our banana tree in the backyard that finally has bananas after three years of planting.

Homer Lee

Olympic Steel Minneapolis Plate

98-lb pumpkin

Larry

Canonsburg, PA

12 tomato, 13 pepper and eight potato plants: with deer fencing, as last year they ate my whole garden :(