STATE TRUST LANDS

September 19-23

2021 CONFERENCE

Portland, Oregon

Welcome to Oregon!

What a journey! When we began planning the 2020 National Association of State Trust Lands summer conference, we had no idea what twists and turns awaited us. But like all of you, we persevered, and are thrilled to be welcoming you to Portland at last in fall 2021!

This conference marks the first time many of us are seeing colleagues and friends from other states. It's our hope these days together will provide insights into the rewarding challenge of managing state trust lands, information we can all take back to our respective home states, and inspiration for continuing the good work of managing the lands and resources that are so important to funding education.

Thank you for joining us. We look forward to enjoying your perspectives and company.

Aaron M. Vande Linde
President, National Association of State Trust Lands

Vicki L. Walker, Director, Oregon Department of State Lands and Vice President, National Association of State Trust Lands
