

Calling All Lincolnville Families (1832–1970): IAAM History Lincolnville –Share Your Story!

The International African American Museum (IAAM) in partnership with The Lincolnville Preservation & Historical Society is excited to invite families who lived in Lincolnville between 1832 and 1970 for an exciting opportunity on:

SATURDAY, MAY 30, 2026 @ 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM
Ebenezer AME Church, 124 E. Pinckney Street, Lincolnville, SC

INTERNATIONAL
AFRICAN AMERICAN MUSEUM

If your family’s roots run deep in Lincolnville or your ancestors helped shape our town’s journey, your voice belongs in the historical records of the ages. Deposit your family’s history, memories, and legacy into the Digital Archives of the International African American Museum where generations to come will find you and your family’s stories and artifacts.

Register Your Family to Participate in this Extraordinary Community Event
LINCOLNVILLESC.ORG • REGISTRATION IS FREE & REQUIRED

We invite your family to give a 15-minute oral interview to the staff of IAAM and to bring documents detailing the lives and history of people and places in Historic Lincolnville. The staff of IAAM will digitize and help you preserve your family documents (up to 10 items per person). Bring your family’s:

Church Obituaries
Funeral Programs
Birth Records
Delayed Birth Records
Marriage Records
Death Records
Family Bibles

Military Records:
Revolutionary War (1775) – Desert Storm (1991)
Enslavement Period Documents
Pre-1970 Family, Neighborhood
& Business Photos
School & Sport Photos

*ALL RECORDS WILL BE RETURNED TO YOU

Weekend Activities

FRIDAY, MAY 29, 2026

1:00 PM – 5:00 PM

Ancestral Celebration, Cemetery Clean-up of Family Headstones
Bible Sojourn Cemetery
Headstone Cleaning Agents Will Be Provided

SATURDAY, MAY 30, 2026

10:00 AM – 4:00 PM

IAAM History Lincolnville
Ebenezer AME Church

You must register @ www.lincolnvillesc.org (Free)

11:00 AM – 4:00 PM

Professional Family Portraits
Bishop Richard Harvey Cain Community Garden
See cost and registration at www.lincolnvillesc.org

1:00 PM – 2:00 PM

Genealogy Workshop by Darius Brown, Research
Assistant, IAAM
Ebenezer AME Church

Please register @ www.lincolnvillesc.org (Free)

1:00 PM – 6:00 PM

Lincolnville HomeTown Festival
ALL ARE WELCOME!
Music, Food, Vendors, Kids Corner!
Bishop Richard Harvey Cain Community Garden
Vendor Registration @ www.lincolnvillesc.org

*Why It Matters: Your Story is Part of Lincolnville's Soul.
..... and We're Preserving it for Generations to Come.*

PLEASE SHARE THIS INVITATION WITH FAMILIES AND INDIVIDUALS WHO MAY NO LONGER LIVE IN LINCOLNVILLE.

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT: INFO@LINCOLNVILLES.C.ORG

REGISTER TODAY AT LINCOLNVILLES.C.ORG