Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is celebrated after the Noon Mass on the Second and Fourth Sundays of the month. Registered parishioners are asked to make arrangements for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA): This process for becoming Catholic is a series of steps conducted in the context of learning about the faith and spiritual formation, through which a person is fully incorporated in the Body of Christ, the Church. This formation is for the unbaptized, those baptized in other Christian communities, and Catholics who have not received all three Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist).

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated every Saturday from 3:00 p.m. until 4:00 p.m., during a Communal Penance Service during Advent and Lent or by appointment.

Holy Orders: When a gentleman feels the call to follow the Lord as a Priest in the Catholic Church, he should call Father David Kidd, our Diocesan Vocation Director, at 419-244-6711 or email: dkidd@toledodiocese.org, or speak to one of the Parish Priests. If the Permanent Diaconate is of interest to a gentleman, he should call Deacon Daniel Brahier, our Delegate for Deacons, at 419-244-6711 or speak to one of the Deacons of the Parish.

Religious Life: Consecrated women and men religious by their lives witness the joy of eternal union with God. Freed from earthly cares, they more fully manifest the Kingdom of God to all Christians. The structure of the vowed life frees consecrated religious to live entirely for God and others. If you are interested in this vocation, you can contact Sister Maria Amata, RSM, at <https://toledodiocese.org/page/delegate-for-consecrated-life#welcome>.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the Parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a Priest or Deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office to arrange for Holy Communion at home. When a parishioner is in a hospital or nursing home, please call the Parish Office to arrange for a visit. You may wish to call before any planned surgeries. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick by calling the Parish Office at 419-885-5791. Please call, do not email in urgent situations.

WORSHIP: Worship is the response of the People of God to the Father's invitation to be one with Him, expressed through the Church's official liturgy, as well as through other prayers and devotions. Our worship is direct to the Father, through the Son, in the unity of the Holy Spirit. All the ministries related to the prayer of the Church are included in this category.

We are hiring a full-time Ministry Coordinator.

The primary function of this position is the coordination of ministries and volunteers. This position is full-time, Sunday through Thursday, to serve our Saint Joseph Parish community. Interested candidates can request job description and also send their cover letter and resume to Joanne Denyer at: jdwyer@stjoesylvania.org.

A Note About the Notes--Our Gospel today, asks, "Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night?" (Luke 18:7). The question is for emphasis. For even if the wicked and dishonest can answer the cry of the just, how could our good God not also do the same? Our closing hymn, "God of Day and God of Darkness" follows this same line of reasoning for social justice. "All creation still is groaning for the dawning of Your might, when the Sun of peace and justice fills the earth with radiant light." This beautiful hymn was written by Marty Haugen (who has written thousands of liturgical music) and set to the American hymn tune, "Beach Spring". "Beach Spring" is characterized for its bouncy yet strong melody with a long tone always on the first beat, giving a dance-like pulse, and emphasizing the most important words. "Show us Christ in one another, make us servants strong and true; give us all your love of justice so we do what you would do." ---Libby Saxton--Director of Music Ministries FORMATION: Formation is the growth and development of the whole person by an intentional focus on one's spiritual and interior life, as well as spiritually fruitful interactions with others in ordinary life. It is a lifelong process as a believer desires to become more like Him. This is possible only because of the divine grace of the Gospel and empowering presence of the Holy Spirit. All the ministries related to the education and formation of God's people are included in this category.

All men are invited as we go through the Kapuan's Men Virtue Series.

Can one man make a difference in the world? Join us as we learn about the life of Emil Kapaun and the virtues that made a difference to the men he served.

Father Kapaun was a Catholic priest and Army Chaplain who served in the farming communities of Kansas, and on the battlefields and in the prison camps of Korea until his eventual death. Awarded the Medal of Honor in 1913, he is a model of manhood for all of us who strive to live a life of virtue.

Men from many walks of life help you to understand what virtue looks like in today's world.
In participation with other men, Kapaun's Men is designed to help men accompany one another as we respond to God's invitation to greatness.

You are invited to join us for the series, or any meeting that works for your schedule. We

The Most Reverend Daniel E. Thomas
Bishop Diocese of Toledo
1933 Spielbusch Ave
Toledo, OH 43604-5360

Dear Brother in Christ,

As we prepare for World Mission Sunday on October 19, 2025, I am writing to urge you to encourage the faithful of your diocese in renewing its missionary commitment through prayer, preaching, and generous solidarity with the missions.

During my years as papal representative in missionary territories, I had the privilege of witnessing firsthand the extraordinary work made possible by The Pontifical Mission Societies. In Uganda, I was tasked with distributing over $4 million in funds to support churches, clinics, schools, and pastoral programs. I saw with my own eyes what happens when the global Church steps forward in faith: children receive the sacraments, families find hope, and the Gospel takes on flesh and life.

Our Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, who ministered for 22 years as a missionary in Peru, is clearly guiding the universal Church with the heart of a missionary. He has rightly called The Pontifical Mission Societies “the primary means for awakening missionary responsibility among all the baptized [and] supporting ecclesial communities in areas where the Church is young.” As our chief missionary, he reminds us that mission is not a superfluous part of the Church’s life — it is her very nature.

World Mission Sunday, established by Pope Pius XI in 1926, is a powerful expression of this identity. It is the only annual collection mandated by canon law for the universal Church (791.4). It is a moment for every parish, in every country, to focus on the missionary nature of our faith and to support the 1,124 mission territories that depend on the Pope for spiritual and material aid. World Mission Sunday is the opportunity for all of us to support our Holy Father in his apostolic responsibilities.

Last year alone, The Pontifical Mission Societies helped build nearly 1,000 churches, provided formation to 82,948 seminarians, supported more than 258,540 religious sisters, and equipped 843,785 catechists to evangelize in communities without a regular priestly presence.

I encourage you, dear brother, to preach about this sacred responsibility on World Mission Sunday, and to request your priests to do the same. Please ensure that your diocese promotes World Mission Sunday as a day of global prayer and giving — not just as “another second collection,” but as a visible sign of our communion with those bringing Christ to the peripheries, conscious that the whole Catholic world counts on the generosity of the Church in the United States.

With gratitude for your commitment and prayers for the fruits of your apostolic work, I remain,

Fraternally yours in Christ,

Christoph Cardinal Pierre
Apostolic Nuncio to the United States

STEWARDSHIP: Christian stewards are disciples of Jesus Christ who receive God's gifts gratefully, cultivate them responsibly, share them lovingly in justice with others, and return them with increase to the Lord.
