SYLVANIA SAINT JOSEPH

SOLEMN VESPERS OF SAINT JOSEPH

THURSDAY, MARCH 19
AT 6:30 PM IN THE CHURCH

All are warmly invited to join us for Solemn Vespers on the Feast of Saint Joseph. This beautiful evening prayer, drawn from the Church's ancient Liturgy of the Hours, offers psalms, Scripture, and quiet reflection as we honor Saint Joseph, guardian of the Holy Family and patron of the universal Church — and beloved patron of our parish.

Sunday School

Spring Session

Our Sunday School Spring Session is set to begin on March 22. It will continue through May 3, skipping April 5 for Easter. This is for children ages 3-6.

Our class will meet in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Atrium during the 10:00 AM Mass. We do ask that the participating children are toilet-trained.

New Children's BULLETIN

Families are invited to pick up a Children's Bulletin, with activities based on this week's Mass readings. Bulletins can be found at the Welcome Desk, in the Cry Room, and at the entrance near the Holy Family Chapel. We hope this helps our young parishioners engage more deeply in the Mass!

The cost for the Sunday School Spring Session is $25 and parents can register their child online using the QR code below.

Ask the Holy Spirit to guide you as you reflect (you can even do these as a family!):

- We hear of King David's anointing in the first reading. In today's church, which sacraments include anointing with oil? In what ways has God anointed you to do his special work?
- Today's Gospel is about Jesus healing the man born blind. How would being physically blind affect your day-to-day life? What would you have to do differently and what would stay the same?
- Why were the Pharisees upset about this healing? Do we ever become upset when something good happens to another person and not us?

Prayer: Jesus, you are the Light of the World. Help us to see ourselves and others through your eyes. Amen.

THEME: PERPETUAL ADORATION

JOIN US!

On the third, fourth, and fifth Sundays of Lent (March 8, 15, 22), we celebrate the Scrutinies for those who will be baptized and accepted into the Church at Easter. These scrutiny rites are meant to uncover, then heal all that is weak or sinful in the hearts of the catechumens and the candidates and to bring out and strengthen all that is strong and good. These prayers and exorcisms give all of us an opportunity to pray for and with them. It is also a chance to look at our lives in this season of repentance to see what keeps us from Christ and to ask God's continued grace for our journey.

Catechumens

Suzanne Diaz, Molly Griffin, Lily Bly, Ava Birr, Grace Birr

Candidates

Megan Ankney, Timothy Ankney, Julie Bowdle, Brianna Brock, Jeffrey Carpenter, Robert Dye, Declan Golis, Allison Katterheinrich, Storm Stanley, Kalynah Zychowicz

Lenten Parish Mission:

Return To the Father

March 23, 24 & 25 | 6:45–8:15 PM

Join us for one night or all three evenings as we continue this Lenten journey together.

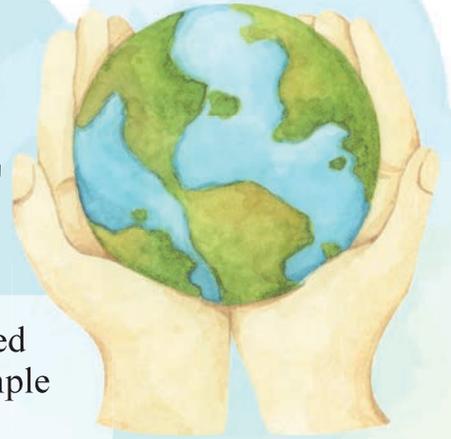

Lent is a season of return – a time to pause, refocus, and open our hearts again to God’s presence. Whether your Lenten journey has been strong so far or you feel like you need a freshstart, this mission offers an opportunity to refresh, restart, and renew your prayer life.

Each evening will include an interactive presentation centered on the theme of returning to the Father and continuing our Lenten journey with greater intention and hope.

The mission will take place in the Main Church. On Monday evening, the mission will include Eucharistic Adoration, providing a peaceful opportunity to spend time in prayer before the Lord.

“But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found.” (Lk 15:32, NABRE)

FROM MUD TO MIRACLES: OUR DAMASCUS ADVENTURE

The seventh graders of Saint Joseph Parish School and I enjoyed an unforgettable three-day stay in Damascus. What began as a simple trip soon became something much deeper - an adventure of faith, friendship, and personal discovery. It was truly a journey that moved from muddy shoes to meaningful miracles in our hearts.

Walking around the Damascus campus was a deeply peaceful and refreshing experience for me. I took pleasure in walking through the picturesque surroundings, particularly by the small lake, where the atmosphere was calm and serene. During this time, I observed the activities of our seventh-grade students. The children's laughter and play brought me happiness. Their enthusiasm contributed to a vibrant and positive atmosphere. Participating in spiritual activities and walks was among my most peaceful memories in Damascus.

Throughout the retreat, the students took part in many exciting activities. There were high ropes that tested courage, muddy games that brought laughter, and team challenges that encouraged everyone to work together. The mud was everywhere - on shoes, clothes, and even faces - but it became a symbol of the joy and freedom the students felt. Sometimes the messiest moments were the ones that brought the most laughter and the strongest friendships.

Yet, beyond the fun and adventure, the most powerful moments happened in the quiet spaces of prayer. During Mass, confession, and especially Eucharistic Adoration, many students experienced something new and deeply meaningful. For some, it was the first time they felt truly close to Jesus. A few spoke about feeling emotional during prayer, while others shared that they felt peace in their hearts, as if a heavy weight had been lifted. In those quiet moments before the Blessed Sacrament, many discovered that God was not distant, but very near.

The missionaries at Damascus guided the students with joy and enthusiasm. Their witness of faith inspired the students to think about their own relationship with God and how they can grow closer to Him in everyday life.

This experience would not have been possible without the care and dedication of the teachers who accompanied the students. We would like to extend our sincere appreciation to our chaperones - Mandy Seymour, Kris Krupitzer, and Mary Jo Jacoby- for their guidance, patience, and support, which contributed significantly to the safety and success of this retreat. Their presence reminded the students that faith is not only taught in classrooms but also lived through shared experiences, prayer, and example.

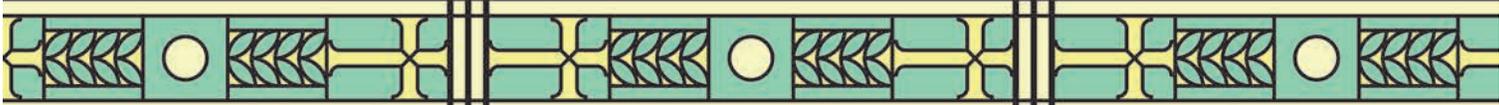

We are also grateful to the parents who supported this opportunity and trusted us with their children during this special time. Your support made this experience possible.

The Damascus retreat was truly more than a trip. It was a moment of grace. Our seventh graders returned with stronger friendships, joyful memories, and hearts that were touched by God's presence. From mud to miracles, it was an adventure they will carry with them for many years to come.

-Father Jason
