Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is celebrated after the Noon Mass on the Second and Fourth Sundays of the month. Registered parishioners are asked to make arrangements for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA): This process for becoming Catholic is a series of steps conducted in the context of learning about the faith and spiritual formation, through which a person is fully incorporated in the Body of Christ, the Church. This formation is for the unbaptized, those baptized in other Christian communities, and Catholics who have not received all three Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist).

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated every Saturday from 3:00 p.m. until 4:00 p.m., during a Communal Penance Service during Advent and Lent or by appointment.

Holy Orders: When a gentleman feels the call to follow the Lord as a Priest in the Catholic Church, he should call Father David Kidd, our Diocesan Vocation Director, at 419-244-6711 or email: dkidd@toledodiocese.org, or speak to one of the Parish Priests. If the Permanent Diaconate is of interest to a gentleman, he should call Deacon Daniel Brahier, our Delegate for Deacons, at 419-244-6711 or speak to one of the Deacons of the Parish.
Religious Life: Consecrated women and men religious by their lives witness the joy of eternal union with God. Freed from earthly cares, they more fully manifest the Kingdom of God to all Christians. The structure of the vowed life frees consecrated religious to live entirely for God and others. If you are interested in this vocation, you can contact Sister Maria Amata, RSM, at <https://toledodiocese.org/page/delegate-for-consecrated-life#welcome>.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the Parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a Priest or Deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office to arrange for Holy Communion at home. When a parishioner is in a hospital or nursing home, please call the Parish Office to arrange for a visit. You may wish to call before any planned surgeries. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick by calling the Parish Office at 419-885-5791. Please call, do not email in urgent situations.

WORSHIP: Worship is the response of the People of God to the Father's invitation to be one with Him, expressed through the Church's official liturgy, as well as through other prayers and devotions. Our worship is direct to the Father, through the Son, in the unity of the Holy Spirit. All the ministries related to the prayer of the Church are included in this category.

A Note About the Notes: Our hymn-prayer today to accompany the preparation of the gifts, "The Servant Song" can be an unexpected challenge. We have been told since childhood to be kind to others, to share, to be compassionate. Perhaps the most important line of this hymn-prayer is at the end of the first stanza: "Pray that I may have the grace to let you be my servant, too." God calls us to serve and allow ourselves to be served. It takes an authentic humility to allow help. We were created in the image of the Trinity; we were created for community. As our mission statement says, "we are a community of disciples reaching out in service to all." In "The Servant Song," we proclaim that we "will hold the Christ-light for you... till we've seen this journey through".--Libby Saxton, Director of Music Ministry

NOTICE! The Parking Lots on the West Campus surrounding the church on both the north and south sides will be sealed and re-striped on August 12th & 13th. SAINT JOSEPH PARISH SACRISTY PROJECT

This project was truly a team effort, made possible by the dedication of many volunteers and generous individuals. It's important to acknowledge their contributions here.

Pat and Patti McNamara, along with their company Archbold Furniture, donated all the furniture-grade plywood, raw oak cut to specified dimensions, and finished drawer boxes. They also provided access to essential equipment and skilled personnel for the early processing of materials.

Once the materials arrived at Deacon Rick Sasala's shop, several people assisted in assembling the components into finished cabinets:

- Tyler Rahn, who generously gave his time on many occasions.
- Father Joseph Mominee and Erin Sasala, who also contributed to the assembly process.

Transporting the completed cabinets to the church required a 28-foot U-Haul truck, rented by Steve Leamy, and a strong, coordinated crew:

- Steve Leamy, Marcus Droll, Matt Britt, Glenn Soldner, Joe LeBlanc and John Kevern.

Setting the cabinets involved:

- Steve Lawrence, who was invaluable in setting the bases.
- Tyler Rahn, Marcus Droll, and Father Joseph, who assisted with final placement.

Special thanks to A&D Glass of Perrysburg for supplying the glass for the island countertop and sacrarium at a generous discount.

Finally, heartfelt appreciation goes to Nancy Sasala, who not only supported Deacon Rick throughout the project but also lent a helping hand and approved the purchase of a few new tools.

This project was truly a labor of love. I'm deeply grateful for how beautifully it came together. Thank you, Deacon Rick, for your leadership and craftsmanship.

SERVICE: Service is both an attitude and a practical response based on the Lord's declaration that one who wishes to be greatest in the Kingdom of God must become the servant of all. It is also the virtue that directs all the other virtues of individuals toward the common good. All the ministries related to the social outreach directed by the social doctrine of the Church are included in this category.

Monthly Potluck Dinner--Monday, August 11, 2025 at 5:00 p.m. in the Pasotos Suite on the East Campus. All are welcome. Bring a dish to share and enjoy food, fun, and fellowship with your fellow Saint Joseph parishioners. Why eat at home alone when you can join us? Please do!

Have you considered becoming a Catholic, or would you like to complete the Sacraments of Initiation in the Catholic Church?

Join us for an informational meeting on the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) on Wednesday, August 27, at 6:30 p.m. in the Hoffman Room on the west campus. This invitation is for those who are not baptized, baptized Catholics who have not received first Eucharist and/or Confirmation, or baptized in other Christian communities.

The OCIA process offers the opportunity to:

- † meet other people who are on a similar spiritual journey
- † reflect on questions about life, faith and Christian living
- † learn about the Holy Trinity and Catholic teachings
- † grow spiritually and deepen your relationship with God
- † reflect on Scripture readings and pray as a small faith-sharing group

If you, or someone you know, may be interested in learning more about the OCIA, consider attending this meeting or contact Joanne Denyer/Pastoral Associate at 885-5791 or jdenyer@stjoesylvania.org.

Jesus: The Way, the Truth, and the Life

Jesus is our savior, our redeemer, our Lord, and our God. Our belief in Jesus is what makes us who we are as Catholics, as Christians, but do we really know him as we should? Is Jesus a part of your life, or is he at the center of your life? We invite you to make him the center of your life by joining us in Jesus: The Way, the Truth, and the Life, a 10-week video study program through Ascension Press that explores the entirety of Jesus' life and what he means for us as Catholics today. The Study is offered on:

Tuesday evenings (7-8:30) and Wednesday mornings (9:30-11), beginning September 9/10 at the East Campus Meeting Rooms. Cost of materials is $33 and can be paid at the first session when they are distributed.

Participants will meet weekly to view an engaging video presentation by Marcellino D'Ambrosio, Jeff Cavins, and Edward Sri, followed by a lively group discussion and fellowship. For more information or to register, contact 419-885-5791 or ascensionpress.com.

Leading the FLOCK

BY BISHOP DANIEL E. THOMAS

“I will take the chalice of salvation and call on the name of the Lord” (Psalm 116:13)

These words are taken from the Psalm Response most often chosen for the Ritual Mass with the Ordination of priests. In fact, it was these very words we prayed this year during the ordination of our three new priests! These words express the sentiments of the psalmist who prays in thanksgiving that the Lord has heard his prayers and supplications. He writes: “Because he inclined his ear to me, therefore I will call on him as long as I live.” In the Ordination Mass, as we pray these words, we thank the Lord for all he has done for us in the gift of new priests, we thank the Lord for all he has done for us in shedding his blood to save us, and we thank the Lord that our priests live to pour themselves out for us as did Jesus himself.

Just two years ago I wrote that the Eucharist and the Priesthood are inseparable and highlighted our great need for diocesan priests in the July 2023 Leading the Flock column. At that time, we introduced a new initiative for the Diocese of Toledo which invited everyone in our Diocese to pray one Hail Mary each day for an increase in priestly vocations, and to do some fasting or abstinence for the same intention. There is no doubt that your prayers and intentional fasting and abstinence are bearing fruit. Over a three-year period we’ve accepted 1, then last year 4, now this year 6 new seminarians! And more are coming!

Two years ago I observed: “While the challenges we face may seem daunting, I ask that you approach your prayer and fasting/penance for priestly vocations with hope. Just think, if every parish in our diocese sent just one man to the seminary every ten years, we would have 122 seminarians over a ten-year period. If just half of them were ordained priests, we would be ordaining an average of over 6 men per year! This would be a huge shift from our current 20-year average of less than 2 ordinations per year. Dare we hope?” Now, we find ourselves in this Jubilee Year of Hope, called to be Pilgrims of Hope, and recognizing signs of hope! Please join with me in renewed prayer and renewed hope for priestly vocations!

As with our Diocesan Prayer, we are committed to praying for all holy vocations, conscious in particular of the need for deacons and consecrated women religious. Pope Saint John Paul II reminds us: “There can be no Eucharist without the priesthood.” So in these final days of the month of July, dedicated to the Most Precious Blood of Jesus, I am renewing my call that every person in our diocese continue or begin to offer a daily Hail Mary, along with some weekly Friday observance of fast or abstinence, for the intention of priestly vocations for our diocese. We need men who are ready and willing to take up the chalice of self-sacrifice and call on the name of the Lord, and to offer the Body and Blood of our Lord at Mass. We need men who are ready and willing to make present the Lord’s Paschal Mystery both at the altar and in their very persons. We need more priests who are happy, holy, humble, healthy, and honest. We need more priests, and with God’s grace and your prayers, more priestly vocations will come.

With that in mind, this month we are launching a new initiative in sending out, over time, to all our 122 parishes, two traveling “chalices” provided by our Knights of Columbus, for the purpose of inspiring prayers for vocations, in particular priestly vocations. These are actually replicas of chalices, with an artistic representation of the body and blood. One chalice will travel through the northern counties and the other chalice will travel through the southern counties of our 19 county diocese. My intention with this effort is to till the soil of our diocese with deep prayer asking, or better, begging the Lord to send more priests to serve in our local Church. Each chalice will spend one month on display in a prominent place in the parish church as a visible reminder for the parishioners intentionally to pray for holy vocations, with a particular emphasis on praying for priestly vocations. It may result that parishes and schools may take the initiative of having their own traveling “chalice,” which could go from family to family and classroom to classroom, to pray for an increase in priestly vocations. I know some have started this already. May it continue!

It is so encouraging that we have 6 new seminarians for the Diocese of Toledo this year – the largest number of new seminarians in a decade! That raises our total number of seminarians to 14. We are already seeing the fruit of our intentional prayer, fasting and abstinence!

And where do such young men come from you might ask? They come most often from families and parishes that are striving for holiness; from families and parishes that encourage the young to serve the Church. You will find such young men at daily Mass, praying quietly in the church, attending Eucharistic adoration, stopping in for confession, or selflessly serving their neighbors. A daily habit of listening and talking with the Lord after reading from the Gospel of the day allows them to hear the voice of God, to more closely attend to the Will of God for their lives, and to act with courage and conviction.

In the recent 2025 CARA report on newly ordained priests from around our country, we find the following insightful information:

- 89% said they were encouraged by someone to consider the call to the priesthood
- 78% of them spent time in Eucharistic Adoration before entering seminary
- 73% attended Catholic School, either elementary, high school, or college, before entering seminary
- 72% were servers at Mass growing up
- 72% said they pray the rosary
- 66% of the newly ordained priests said it was a priest specifically who encouraged them to consider the priesthood
- 66% of the new priests were in full time employment before entering seminary
- 50% attended public school, either elementary or high school
- 46% said they served as lectors at Mass
- 15% were homeschooled
- 6% were in the military prior to entering seminary

That report also shares that the loudest voice of discouragement for a man considering the call to the priesthood can be a family member. I want to reassure all our families that it is a source of joy and grace to have a priest in the family because the priest son or brother can be, removed from the Church, a genuine bridge to God. One of the most significant ways a family can support a young man considering the call to the priesthood is to promote the habit of daily prayer and openness to whatever God has in store for him, even if that may be different than what you might expect or desire for him. Openness of family members to welcome a priestly vocation may well be critical in a young man’s discerning his vocation. Because God’s plan is always the best plan for all our lives.

To any young man reading this column, I want to encourage you and assure you that being a priest is an amazing and rewarding life! It is a full life, a blessed life, and a life deep with meaning and purpose. Yes, you should have a natural desire for marriage and children, but if God is calling you to the priesthood, He will give you the grace to live out joyfully the life of chaste celibacy, obedience, and prayer. Quite simply, priesthood is a heroic adventure of selfless service in the person of Christ Jesus! I am confident more and more men are coming to see it as such! The same qualities that would make for a great husband and father are the same qualities we are looking for in candidates for the priesthood – loving, selfless and self-possessed, kind, prudent and sensitive, strong, faithful, dedicated to the poor and those in need, prayerful, patient, joyful, and courageous! Above all, we need men who are serious about their spiritual lives and about prayer, which brings interior peace and an abiding sense of God’s presence.

Please join me in welcoming the traveling chalices throughout our diocese. May each parish take in the replica of the chalice of salvation, and may parishioners call on the name of the Lord. I am confident that these chalices will prompt us to pray for more young men who are ready and willing to respond to a priestly vocation, to take the chalice of salvation, and to call on the name of the Lord!
